DANCE
BRISBANE FIRE DEPARTMENT
At New Fire House
SATURDAY, AUGUST 14
ADMISSION 25C
SNAPPY 5-PIECE ORCHESTRA

BRISBANE SUN
and FIRST TOWNSHIP TRIBUNE

BRISBANE SUN
IS ON SALE AT TRACT OFFICE
Subscriptions Also Taken

Vol. V, No. 16 BRISBANE, CALIFORNIA Saturday, August 14, 1937

OPPORTUNITY IS GIVEN CITIZENS TO WRITE PLAYS

Federal Theater Project Invites Authors To Enter National Contest

Every northern Californian who has ever entertained a dream of becoming a playwright and seeing his work produced professionally on a New York stage, is offered an opportunity by the Federal Theater Project. The Dramatics Guild is offering a cash award of $250 to the winner of the Federal Theaters National American Play Contest and in addition a minimum run of two weeks at the customary Federal Theaters royalty is guaranteed on a

(Continued on Page 8)

AGRICULTURE IS TO STRESS VISIT OF AUSTRALIANS

Management Of State Fair Has Arranged Broadcast For Special Day

Visit of between 50 and 100 Australian Agriculturists at the State Fair at Sacramento September 3 to 12 will be used for a study of agricultural methods on two continents.

This was announced by the board of directors and Secretary-Manager Robert Muckler, who disclosed that the official greeting to the Australian party will be given world wide significance through an international broadcast arranged by the National Broadcasting Company.

Jennings Pierce, manager of the Western Division of NBC, has scheduled broadcast of the National Farm and Home Hour from the Fair Grounds, September 8, from 9:30 to

(Continued on Page 5)

Youths Stripping Stolen Cars Taken

Wednesday night of this week, on the Skyline boulevard, just off Sneaths Lane, Highway Patrolmen Schramm, Francis and Rinkel, with Deputy Sheriff J. Bottimore of San Mateo County, suddenly came upon two youths in the act of stripping stolen cars. They were working on two machines at the time, one a Plymouth, the other a Buick.

One of the culprits, Henry I. Smith age 20, made his escape into the thick underbrush, although the officers fired several shots in their efforts to halt him. The other errant, Howard Danielson, age 21, of 239 Broderick street, San Francisco, was caught after a considerable chase. It was learned that Danielson is wanted by the federal government for desertion from Thirtieth Infantry Co. E, at the Presidio.

It was revealed, on examination of Danielson, that for some time he and his friend had been stealing cars in and about San Francisco and stripping them in San Mateo County.

Danielson was arrested and is at present in the San Mateo County jail and later will be turned over to the San Francisco police for prosecution.

The uncovering of this theft brought to light the fact that the boys have been party to the stealing of many other cars, which they had placed, for storage in a San Francisco garage. After shifting license plates they boldly parked some of the plundered cars at the curb in front of their homes.

Danielson asserted that both he and his accomplice were married.

BAY FERRY FARE CUT TO THIRTY CENTS

In a ruling handed down Monday of this week, the state railroad commission granted the petition of the Southern Pacific-Golden Gate Ferries, Ltd., for a cut of the auto fare to 30 cents for one way and 50 cents for the round-trip between San Francisco and Oakland, and San Francisco and Sausalito.

Four Dead, Five Injured When Airliner Crashes Power Line

Crashing into a newly constructed power line near Daytona Beach, Fla., airport, a 14-passenger Eastern Air Lines plane recently plunged into a palmetto thicket, killing four persons and injuring five others. According to the airport manager, the power line had been put up during the night without notification. The plane was en route from Chicago to Miami and was taking off on its last leg when the accident happened. Both pilot and co-pilot were killed. Photo shows how the huge ship broke in two as it crashed to earth after striking the power line.

FLORAL FIESTA NOW IN SEARCH OF "HOSTESSES"

Daly City Girls To Have Opportunity To Serve In Greeting Line

Wanted — Fifteen beautiful girls, all residents of San Mateo County, to serve as "hostesses" during the San Mateo County Floral Fiesta at Bay Meadows from September 23 to 26.

This was the appeal issued today by the Fiesta Commission to all sections of the county.

Girls of 18 years or over living in Daly City and vicinity are eligible to enter the competition for selection as the most attractive fifteen—blondes, brunettes or redheads, all are welcome.

The publicity bureau of the Fiesta will be in charge of the selection, and, through co-operation with the Daly

(Continued on Page 5)

Riverside Man New Legion Commander

Joseph S. Long

Recently elected Department Commander of the American Legion at their California state convention at Stockton was Joseph S. Long of Riverside, Cal. He won by a majority of 313 votes over Bert Mann, Americanism chairman, from Canoga Park, Cal., "rank and file" candidate. Long is vice president of an insurance company in Riverside.

Wedding Bells For Bayshore Girl

Wedding bells rang out in Reno, Saturday of last week, for Miss Maud Prestidge, 18 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Prestidge of 357 Rio Virde street, Bayshore City.

William Howard Louthan, 25, of Orland, is the lucky groom.

Mrs. Louthan formerly resided at 346 Willets street in Daly City. She was a member of the graduation class from Jefferson Union High School, this year in June.

Many Attended Club Opening

Bob Burns had a gala and successful opening at his new club, 101 Visitacion avenue, Saturday night of last week. About 300 people attended and report an exceedingly fine time.

An orchestra furnished music for dancing during the evening to a happy crowd of merry makers. Bob says the orchestra will be a regular feature on Saturday nights.

Free Classes At Polytechnic High

Classes in Sight Singing, Ear Training, Elementary Music Theory and Voice will open at Polytechnic Evening High School, Tuesday, August 17, at 7 p. m., under the direction of Etta McCue.

These classes are free to all persons 18 years of age or over.

Business Courses Will Be Continued

WPA classes in shorthand, typing, commercial arithmetic, business English, spelling, etc., will continue at the Spanish Church, corners of Page and Webster streets, and will not be affected by "drastic cuts in personnel.

These classes all have been well attended and the number of students is steadily increasing.

State Tourist Trade Booms This Summer

Steamship bookings are the heaviest since the boom days of the twenties—air lines show the greatest increase in any form of travel—indications are that auto and rail travel for this year will shatter previous records—

Thus, in an optimistic survey, it was revealed this week that hordes of travelers were moving over the highways, railroads, sea and air lanes of Western America.

HURDLE RACE CONTINGENT IS WELL MATCHED

"Sport Of Queens" Event Most Closely Contested At Baden Kennel Club

The hurdle race, one of the most popular in the "Sport of Queens," is likewise the most closely contested among the racing greyhounds at Baden Kennel Club this season.

While Andrew's Pride is kingpin of the 500-yard course, and Mike Andrew excels in the 555-yard races, there is no single standout in the hurdle contingent, the record reveal.

Most promising contestant for the hurdle championship is a young dog named Dutch Ruether, from the small but select racing kennel owned by Jack Roche, former Pacific Coast league baseball player.

Running against the best hurdlers at the track last Saturday, Dutch Ruether not only equalled the season's best time but came from far back to nip the pace setters at the wire in a thrilling photo-finish. Sailor Joe, one of the early season

(Continued on Page 4)

Mail Official Held To Answer

Albert J. Molinari, formerly superintendent of mails at the Daly City Postoffice, appeared before United States Commissioner Williams, Tuesday of this week, in San Francisco, to plead to a charge of illegal use of stamps, the results of a secret investigation conducted during the last two months.

Molinari told the commissioner that he substituted cancelled stamps for unused stamps on several packages sent from his office in order to make up a shortage in the money order drawers. He was held to answer to the federal grand jury.

SHOULD BE ENOUGH CAUSE FOR DIVORCE

In naming Davis Murray as a "four star boarder, in a suit filed at Los Angeles this week, John B. Fitzgibbons complained."

"He not only kissed my wife and used my automobile, but he even wore my clothes.

"The final insult was when she and Murray prejudiced my own daughter against me.

"And Murray wouldn't even pay board—my wife wouldn't let him."

Fitzgibbons is seeking a divorce from his wife, Marguerite.

MORE CASH

Artist: "And why do you want me to give up sketching?"

Landlady: "Well, I should like to see your drawings cover your board."

Vagabond Sketches
by DON AMES

MARE ISLAND, AUGUST 8—Today the staff of the Navy Hospital here put on a home made vaudeville show in their own little theater. The performance wasn't anything one would expect to see at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York, but it was done with professional precision.

If I were a movie scout instead of an embryonic journalist, I am sure that I would have signed up a certain young lady on a five-year contract.

For at the United States Navy Hospital, Mare Island, is one of the most pleasant singing voices I have ever heard. Plus personality. The object of this praise is Nurse Natividad Moore.

SHORT STORY—Brigadier General William E. Gillmore recently proposed making Yerba Buena Island an airplane fortress for combat ships. It would be a great thing for coastal defense.

WANTS ENTIRE FAMILY TO COME TO STATE FAIR

Nonagenarian Invites Over Eighty Of Progeny To Visit Sacramento

Nick Singley, 5421 Tenth avenue, Sacramento, who will be 91 in November, has invited his 22 children, 31 grandchildren, 26 great grandchildren and one great great grandchild to attend the California State Fair, September 3 to 12.

Singley, a covered wagon baby, believes he has the largest number of descendants of any man in California.

Thumbing through the family Bible, Singley remarked:

"If I can get all of my children to attend the fair it will certainly be a long step in obtaining a record attendance."

Singley was born in Utah in 1846 while his parents were en route from Pennsylvania to California. He was reared in Humboldt County and spent his entire life in northern California. He has been a constant visitor at the California State Fair and can recount many tales of the early days.

Singley's memory remains sharp.

(Continued on Page 4)

EDISON, NAVY CHIEF, IN WEST

Charles Edison

Charles Edison, Assistant Secretary of the Navy and son of the late Thomas Alva Edison, who recently visited San Francisco while inspecting naval properties on the west coast. Edison looked over the proposed Oakland, Cal., site for a $15,000,000 naval air base before he left aboard the U. S. S. California for San Diego.

CARAVANS WILL RIDE TRAIL OF NOTED BANDIT

Hollister Horse Show And Rodeo Soon To Be In Full Swing

On August 20, over the trail which three-quarters of a century ago was followed by Tiburcio Vasquez, noted bandit, caravans of horses will ride.

This date has been selected for the opening of the annual San Benito County Saddle Horse Show and Rodeo, it has been announced.

Instead of carrying their riders over the road which the famed bandit took in his escapes from sheriffs posses, these present day horses will be trucked to Bolado Park to take part in the three day program.

The Bolado Park setting, on the picturesque "El Camino de los Bandidos," has been appropriately selected for the saddle horse show. Here a century ago retainers of the Spanish grandees on the east slope of the Sierra de Gabilan gathered for their fandangos and fiestas. Here, too, were held the annual rodeos with Angel Castro, grantee of Rancho Paicines, as juez del campo, the final arbitor of all disputes over stock.

Desire to build up the saddle stock of the county has led to the elimination of all outside contestants. Only riders and horses living in the county will be permitted to compete in a program which will stress the juvenile's part in the development of exceptional stock horses. Children between the ages of 4 and 17 years will be segregated into three groups according to age and permitted to show horses, in many instances trained by themselves.

PLAY OF WEST OFFERED SOON AT THE CURRAN

"Story To Be Whispered" Brings Exotic Star Back To Legitimate Stage

The box office of the Curran Theater, San Francisco, opened Thursday morning of this week for the sale of seats for Majorie Rambeau in the new American play, "Story To Be Whispered," by William Hurlbut, with Weldon Heyburn in the role of Jack Hamilton.

With such a popular star as Marjorie in a very colorful play laid in Virginia City, Nevada, when the Silver Kings of the Bonanza were digging vast riches from the mountainside, this will be an auspicious opening of the new theatrical season, which promises to be one of the best in many years.

The opening date for the world premiere of this play, which brings Marjorie Rambeau back to the legitimate stage after an absence of several years, is now definitely set for Thursday night, August 19, at the Curran Theater. There will be undoubtedly a large influx of theatergoers from California and Nevada to see the star and play. It is seldom that a new play arouses so much advance interest as has this one.

The entire production is under the direction of Edgar MacGregor and he has engaged an unusually brilliant cast which includes such popular players as Herbert Corthell, Lester Matthews, Minnie Dupree, Alma Lloyd, Myra Marsh, Mary Field, Mabel Colcord, Mildred Sennett, Guy Wilkerson, George Pauncefort and Richard Winslow.

The scenic production, designated by Norman Rock, is unusually elaborate, with five scenes, four of which are laid in Virginia City, and the other in New York. The costumes, also designed by Mr. Rock, are of the period, the colorful days of the seventies.

HE CEASED TO LOVE HER—WIFE DIVORCED

Because Humphrey Bogart, movie actor, told his wife he no longer loved her and wanted to be a bachelor again, Mary Phillips, whom he married in April, 1928, was granted a divorce, this week, at Los Angeles.

© New York Post.—WNU Service.

Cubs-Giants Feud Tale of Diamond's Sharpest Rivalry

THE dogged fight between the Cubs and Giants for the National league pennant this year is reminiscent of bygone days when their feud was a tale of baseball's sharpest and most enduring rivalry. The only difference is that while the competition is just as keen this year, the bitterness is gone.

The story of the rivalry of the Cubs and Giants practically writes itself. It stretches far beyond the years of Mike Donlin and the one and only Matty. It embraces other hard-bitten Giants of the youthful 1900s bus-riding a brick tossed way from hotel to ball park to defend the baseball honor of the nation's largest city.

There are memories of lantern-jawed little Johnny Evers, thick-muscled Frank Chance, shouting bitter taunts at fans tight-packed within old wooden grandstands. Once more you see Mordecai Brown, tobacco-flecked ball clutched within three fingers, warming up for the greater baseball glory of the nation's second largest city.

Pages could be written about other never-to-be-forgotten incidents of far off afternoons. Of happy years when the Giants merely knocked off the Dodgers (then Superbas) in their stride and saved their best hate and sharpest spikes for Chicago invaders.

You showed your colors then. Every man was an enemy and so regarded unless he could display the proper ribbon and could mingle dire insult with high praise in correct proportion.

Remember that glowing baseball year of 1908, when feelings were running at their fullest anyhow?

Then Chicago baseball writers arrived at the Polo Grounds early on one heat-waved afternoon to view with bitter astonishment a notice posted upon the press gate. Above the sprawling signature of a man who never hesitated to name his enemies it stated simply and starkly that, by order of John J. McGraw, no Chicago writers would be permitted to enter the park.

Of course that was long ago. McGraw is gone now. Evers is a plumpish, white-haired upholder of the law. Their heirs, the Terrys, Grimms, Hartnetts, Hubbells and Demarees of today, seldom permit feelings to flow as violently for the sake of a mere ball game. Yet there is a grim tensity about present meetings just the same. So far this year the National league race has been a nip and tuck affair between the Cubs and Giants.

Truly enough National league pennants have been won most often in recent years by late season spurts, but there is no copyright on the procedure. The same methods by which modern Yankees and Tigers have triumphed in the other circuit could prevail as easily.

There are other angles—indeed far too many of them for this limited space—to this story which practically writes itself. Yet, as might have been mentioned at the start, I have been sitting here thinking about something else.

About Rogers Hornsby in fact. Ten years ago, lacking only a month, he led the Giants on a surging, victory-adorned trip through the West. Still a great second baseman and hitter, the man who had won St. Louis' first pennant a season previously, he substituted for the ailing McGraw as manager and almost brought another flag to New York.

Hornsby

That was in 1927. McGraw esteemed Hornsby above all other baseball men at the moment, for the first time in his life was speaking proudly of a successor.

Seven years ago we stood for almost two hours talking on a crowded Broadway corner. Hornsby had just taken charge of the Cubs, was making a hustling, fighting team out of a collection of stars who hitherto had looked at life too gayly.

That was in 1930. The late William Wrigley bubbled with pride whenever he thought of his new manager, was making grand plans for the years they would have in baseball together.

And now, while the Cubs and Giants carry on their fan-warming feud the man who might have managed either of them wanders around in the prime of his forty-one years, out of a job.

NOT IN THE BOX SCORE:

THOSE two well publicized but friendly enemies, Mike Jacobs and Jimmy Johnston, shortly will announce a partnership controlling the world prizefight situation. At least that is the buzz along Broadway where it also is whispered the new merger will leave Madison Square Garden with nothing to do but hold the bag . . . Keep an eye on Georgia's torrid football team this fall. The Bulldogs take the field with practically an all veteran outfit . . . Jimmy, the little Brooklyn Italian who used to shave Jack Curley in a Forty-second street barber shop each day, has been unable to work since the death of the famous sports promoter. Incidentally, he spent his entire week's salary buying flowers to honor the memory of his departed patron. Pretty swell gesture that, one Jack would have liked far better than the phony carryings on of more eminent persons.

Tony Canzoneri, who has been an almost daily visitor to the racetracks, is getting ready for another fling at the boxing game . . . Harry Turner, boxing and wrestling promoter, is the Pop of an eight-pound baby boy . . . Fort Jay football followers are cheering because Lieutenant Joe Stancook, the former West Point ace who was slated for duty in the Philippines, has been permitted to remain with them until Christmas . . . Did any one note that Tony Plansky, the Olympian from Georgetown, is doing a swell coaching job at Williams? One of Tony's products is young Tiffy Cook, who may surprise all the quarter-milers in his final campaign.

Jersey City directors are tiffing a trifle, one faction wishing Bill Terry would put Casey Stengel in charge of the club and buy Babe Herman for the outfield . . . Maybe the Giants' regulars do not know it, but one of them will be with Cincinnati next year. It's part of the deal in which the Reds sent Weintraub, Brennan, Brown and Dwyer to J. C. . . . The American Association mailed out engraved invitations for its All-Star game on July 27 . . . Dodger fans may adore their players but when Van Mungo phoned for a table on a Brooklyn hotel roof the other night the reservation was put down for "Van Mogal." . . . Ted Breitenstein of Cincinnati's once famous pretzel battery of Breitenstein and Peitz now is a watchman in a brewery.

Casey Stengel

Irv Witty, N. Y. U. basketball star, is keeping in shape for next winter's campaign by acting as a sports councilor at Camp Equinunk in Pennsylvania . . . Jules Bender, who led the Eastern collegiate point scorers while at Long Island U. last winter, is similarly occupied at Camp Windau in Pittsfield, Mass., while preparing for a pro court career . . . And, while on the subject, is it true that Long Island is taking their athletic scholarships away from Bender, Ben Kramer, Leo Merson and Red Norton, although they have not yet finished their courses? And could the reason be that the four able youngsters have played their allotted four years of college basketball and room must be made for new talent?

United States control of the National Hockey league is almost complete, with only Les Canadiens and Toronto's Maple Leafs to be left in Canada next season. Cleveland, where Printing Ink Magnate Al Sutphen has his million-dollar stadium all set, will get the Montreal Maroons' franchise, with Ex-Ranger Bill Cook as manager. Tommy Gorman, veteran Maroons' manager, probably will stay close to his racetrack interests as manager of the Montreal Forum . . . Of course there's no hint of syndicate hockey, but it's a fact that Detroit's Jim Norris owns the Red Wings, has a big piece of the Americans, controls the Chicago Stadium, home of the Black Hawks, and holds stock in Madison Square Garden, which owns the Rangers, who in turn apparently have taken good care of the younger Cook . . . Hockey moguls, incidentally, still seem squeamish about giving Big Bill Dwyer the works. No matter how much they gossip about forcing him out, the fact that he still has an option to redeem his N. Y. Americans if he can assemble the proper coconuts.

New York's small outdoor fight clubs have had their worst season since 1929. Too much rain, not enough local attractions and Jimmy Johnston's popular priced Garden shows have ruined the little fellows . . . Bill Johnston has offered Henry Jeffra $5,000 to fight Indian Quintana in a 15-rounder . . . Aldo Spoldi, Italian lightweight, scored two one-round knockouts in his homeland and will return here in the fall . . . Enrico Venturi also writes from Italy that he is counting the days until he gets back here and resumes his lightweight activities . . . Katsumi Morioka, Japanese bantamweight who boxes Quintana at Coney Island, is known as "Kats" to the fight mob.

Close friends insist that, in spite of the bags of gold being dangled before his eyes, Don Budge will not turn pro until the United States has defended the Davis Cup successfully at least once . . . Kerr Petrie, dean of New York Golf writers, was born on the fringe of Carnoustie, where the British open was played this year.

HEAVENLY DAYS FOR THE JORDANS

Marion and Jim—'Fibber McGee and Molly' to You—Hit the Top in Radio After Years of Labor, Love and Laughter.

By WILLIAM C. UTLEY

"WHY don't you forget about that guy Jordan?" a suitor asked Marion Driscoll about 18 years ago. "He'll never amount to anything. If you marry him, you'll be living out of a suitcase all your life."

That settled it. For there was nothing Marion Driscoll would rather have done for the rest of her life than live out of a suitcase—with her Jim.

It was a good thing for you and me, too. If this swell romance hadn't blossomed into happy and lasting marriage, we would have had to do without two of the most good-humored and welcome visitors who "call" at our homes—Fibber McGee and Molly.

Marion and Jim Jordan "lived out of a suitcase" and worked like the dickens for a good many years before, as Fibber and Molly, they became one of the five or six top-ranking radio teams. In the rural areas and small communities they rank first. "We've got a bigger audience than even Jack Benny has," is the way Jim puts it.

Fibber Born on Farm.

No wonder, either. They've always been "small town folks," even though they've lived in Chicago for a long time. Like Fibber and Molly, the Jordans themselves are as genuine as the eggs in a home-made cake. One indication is sufficient: During the leaner years when they sometimes worked for $35 a week, the Jordans and their two children—Katherine, seventeen, and Jim, Jr., thirteen—lived in an unpretentious residential district on Chicago's northwest side, where they had a lot of friendly neighbors, plain, ordinary folks like themselves. When they suddenly found themselves in the "big money" class at last, did they buy a fine mansion on the Gold Coast, with more servants than closets? They did not. They built a little seven-room house right in their old neighborhood; it was HOME to them, and that was important.

Fibber (or Jim, if you prefer) was born on a farm near Peoria, Ill., and worked on it until he was twelve; he had seven brothers and sisters to help him out. Marion was a Peoria girl, the youngest save one of a family of 13.

Now there hardly lives a gal who doesn't like to look into a mirror once in a while, and Marion was no exception. At sixteen she was a very pretty girl and had a voice good enough to land her in the church choir. It was at choir practice one day that she caught herself sneaking a peek into the glass above the piano. And when she saw a slim youth of seventeen looking over her shoulder her heart beat like a studio gong; she decided right there that Jim Jordan (for that's who it was) was the man for her. It must have been a two-way mirror, for Jim Jordan decided the same thing.

Jim sang with a quartet which was rehearsing with the choir. They had their first date on New Year's eve. Marion can't suppress a little giggle whenever she thinks of it.

They Still Tease.

"His mother went along with us, and took him home afterward!" she laughs. Even after 20-odd years this charge still makes him hot under the collar. "Oh, here now," he objects. "Cut that out!" Then, with a grin: "Anyway, didn't you always bring your big brother along on our dates after that?"

For three years they courted before they were married, and for 19 years since. Before their marriage, Jim toured in vaudeville with a musical act called, "A Night With the Poets." He sang on the Chautauqua circuits, and later started a concert company that toured the tank towns, an experience which may have developed some of the "tank town tourist" flavor which characterizes the McGee and Molly skits.

Shortly after their marriage Jim left for France as a replacement for the one hundred twenty-second engineers, but sickness prevented his seeing service, and he was in a hospital when the Armistice was signed. Meanwhile, was Marion, back home in Peoria, merely twiddling her thumbs, awaiting his return? "Heavenly days!" says she. "I was that busy teaching piano to 50 pupils, some good and some bad, I didn't have a moment to myself!"

They decided to get out of the show business when Jim came back, but it was no go. Jim wasn't very successful finding steady work and, with his brothers-in-law constantly taunting, "When are you going to get a job?" he soon found himself behind the footlights again. He and Marion had real success with their concert company, and no one complained that he was shiftless any more.

An Agent Gets Fired.

Billed as a 15-piece ensemble, the company was literally that—a 15 piece affair—but there were only six people in it; some of them played several instruments. This led to complications.

An advance man preceded them on tour and arranged for their billing. When they arrived they usually met a stage crowded with 15 chairs and a manager stirred with indignation at finding only six musicians. At this point Jim would become highly incensed at the audacity of his agent in permitting so gross a misrepresentation. Loudly and righteously, in the sight of all concerned, he would discharge the agent. Marion and Jim estimate that this hardy soul was "fired" in such a manner twice a week for four years.

There followed more success, this time as a harmony team in vaudeville. Then the night which was to open up new and miraculous vistas to them.

They were playing cards with friends in Chicago in 1924. An old battery radio set was blatting away. Conversation was all but impossible as what might or might not have been a harmony team struggled with the notes in the upper ranges.

Jim Wins a Bet.

Jim stood it as long as he could. Then:

"Dad rat it!" he cried. "We can do better than that!" His host was a doubting Thomas with a bit of sporting blood and bet Jim they couldn't. So the next day found them seeking an audition at the station to which they had been listening—old WIBO, "the top of the dial," in Chicago.

They clicked immediately, and soon made their debut in a commercial program on the ether waves as the O'Henry twins—at $10 a broadcast! They collected the $10 they had bet, too.

Those were the days before anybody got fat eating on a radio star's salary. Marion and Jim for eight months broadcasted two hours a day for $35 a week. They were known under dozens of different names, and it is a tribute to their amazing versatility that they did not run out of things to do. They sang songs, acted out little skits, dialogs and monologs, and Marion played the celeste.

But vaudeville still offered more money, and reluctantly they left the microphone for another year in the theaters. Then when WENR went on the air they returned, never to leave. The character of Fibber McGee may be traced by veteran listeners to that of an old man named Luke in one of their early broadcasts. Molly is much the same character as Mrs. Smith in their old skit, "The Smith Family." They had another program called the "Smackouts," which they intend to bring back to radio some day.

All this time it might be supposed that the national networks were overlooking them; in fact it has often been reported that they never had a chance at the networks until Fibber and Molly came to life. Nothing could be further from the truth, Jim insists. They simply made so much money off local broadcasts plus theater appearances that they avoided the networks. When NBC bought WENR they went to WMAQ, where they could remain a local team, but when NBC bought WMAQ, as well, Jim had to hit the national hookup as "Mr. Twister."

Marion Has Many Tongues.

The first Fibber McGee and Molly broadcasts was in March, 1935. The "show" was a "natural" from the start. That it has remained so, in fact has never ceased to add to its popularity, testifies to Jim Jordan's showmanship. The sponsor wanted to base the show on Fibber's "fish stories" and outlandish lies, but Jim saw that the listeners would soon tire of them and refused. Instead we hear this quaint Irish couple, genuine, witty, and at all times sympathetic, surrounded by some of the funniest characters radio ever has known. Fans have learned to love and laugh at the little girl whose tiny voice can ask the most embarrassing questions on earth; Geraldine, the tittering bride; Grandma, the old lady with the chorus girl philosophy; Mrs. Wearybottom, who always seems as if she will surely run down like an old-time phonograph before she finishes a sentence, but never does, quite; and Molly, herself, an able foil for the cocky McGee. All of these and more are played by Marion herself!

Horatio K. Boomer, the small time big shot; the raspy Russian, who says "Hallo, Petrushka! Hallo, Tovarich!"; the Scotchman, and other dialect characters, are played by young Bill Thompson, whom Jim discovered. Silly Watson, the politely uproarious blackface comedian, is Hugh Studebaker, who never acted at all until he got into radio—he was a pipe organist. Studebaker also has a show of his own, "Bachelor's Children." Harpo, the announcer who loves to "spoil" Fibber's favorite jokes by "sneaking in" a commercial announcement, is Harlow Wilcox, who is Harold Isbell in real life. Fibber, of course, is Jim Jordan.

Coin Many 'Catch Phrases.'

You'll find no "mother-in-law" jokes on the Fibber McGee and Molly program. "'Taint funny, McGee!" Molly said, and that was that. And you'll never hear anything on the program that you wouldn't want your children to hear; Marion and Jim have children of their own. Don Quinn, who has written the Jordan scripts for seven years, has taken a lesson from the honest-to-goodness romance that has followed the pair throughout their married life. You will never hear any serious arguments between Fibber and Molly; it's very apparent that they love each other, and you love them for it.

Seldom has any troupe in the show business coined so many catch phrases that have become by-words throughout the nation. Among all classes of people today you may hear repeated almost any time Molly's "Heavenly days, McGee!" and "'Tain't funny, McGee!"; Fibber's "Dad rat it!"; the little girl's "I betcha!" and Grandma's "Hi, Skippy!"

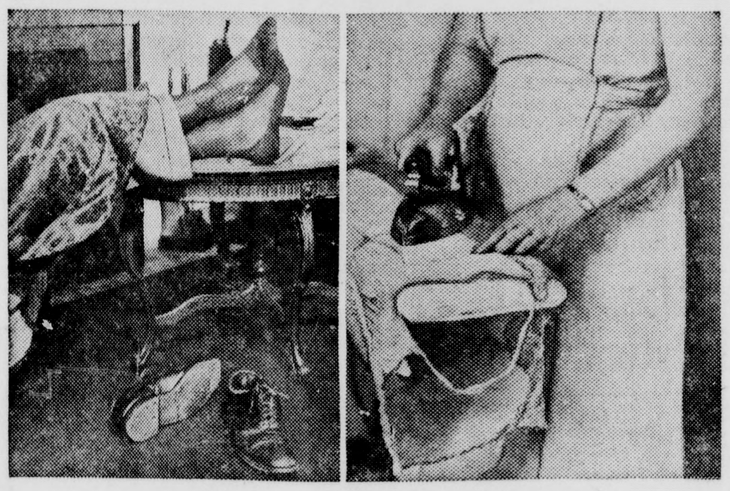
They're riding on top of the world right now, the Jordans. But would they quit if they could? "Just give me a chance," says Jim. "Boy, I'd like to go right back where I started. I'd like to live on a little farm by a lake and take life easy."

"Heavenly days!" says Marion.

"You bet," Jim replies.

© Western Newspaper Union.

Fibber McGee . . . and Molly.



Marion says these candid camera shots of Jim and her are typical of a Jordan day at home.

CALIFORNIA
News of the Week

World's Largest Fish Hatchery

Mt. Shasta.—The Mt. Shasta State fish hatchery in Siskiyou County is the largest plant of its kind in the world, according to the State fish and game commission. It has a yearly potential capacity of 15,000,000 trout and salmon.

Porterville School Burns

Porterville.—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the city's largest elementary school with an estimated loss of more than $100,000. Workmen had just completed redecorating the building and sanding the floors in preparation for the fall term.

California Has Three Coal Mines

Sacramento.—California had three coal producing mines during 1936, one each in Amador, San Benito and Trinity Counties. They produced 370 tons of coal valued at $1815, according to the State division of mines. In 1935 the coal mines in the State produced 8049 tons valued at $32,745.

Murder and Suicide in Church

El Centro.—Fred W. Simmons, 42, shot Dr. O. Lamar Webster of Holtville dead and then killed himself in the Seventh Day Adventist Church here, while 50 members of the congregation looked on horror stricken. Simmons, a hatchery owner, accused the physician of undue friendship with his wife, who was a witness of the double tragedy.

Rescue 15,000 Fish

Hanford.—A rescue squad has saved more than 15,000 fish trapped by falling waters of Kern river during the past three weeks, according to Ray Ellis, game warden. Thousands of fish were left in shallow pools and sloughs when high waters caused by the runoff from a heavy snow pack dropped back to ordinary levels, the game warden said.

6,162 Motorists Lose Licenses

Sacramento.—Drunken driving caused the suspension of the driving licenses of 6,162 motorists in California during the first six months of this year, according to a report issued by Ray Ingels, director of the State department of motor vehicles. The suspension, revocation or cancallation of 2,313 licenses for other causes also was reported. The suspension of licenses, due mainly to drunken driving, jumped 291.6 per cent over last year, while revocations and cancellations were reported as 97.2 per cent greater this year.

Ancient Lizard Fossils Found

Fresno.—Paleontelogists believe vertebrae unearthed in the Panoche hills, fifty miles west of here, may be those of a hitherto unknown species of Plesiosaur, a sea lizard that inhabited the earth 50,000,000 years ago. The first 36 vertebrae were discovered in April by Frank Paiva, gypsum mine operator, on a prospecting trip. Ten feet of the bones were brought to Fresno State college, and W. M. Tucker, head of the geology department, and others have unearthed sixteen additional vertebrae. They believe there may be twenty to forty feet more of the backbone in the ground.

'Wild Woman' Named in Suit

Los Angeles.—A $1,600 damage suit has been filed by Homer C. Pierce, young dental technician, as a result of his visit to a Venice pier concession to see the "wild women." One woman, particularly wild, leaped up the side of her cage and rapped him on the head with a piece of rubber hose, Pierce charges, "greatly injuring him internally and externally, inflicting cuits and bruises and causing shock to his nervous system." He brought suit against her as "John Doe No. 1" and against the Abbot Kinney Co., Joe Lobo, the Wild Woman Co., and the Wild Man Co.

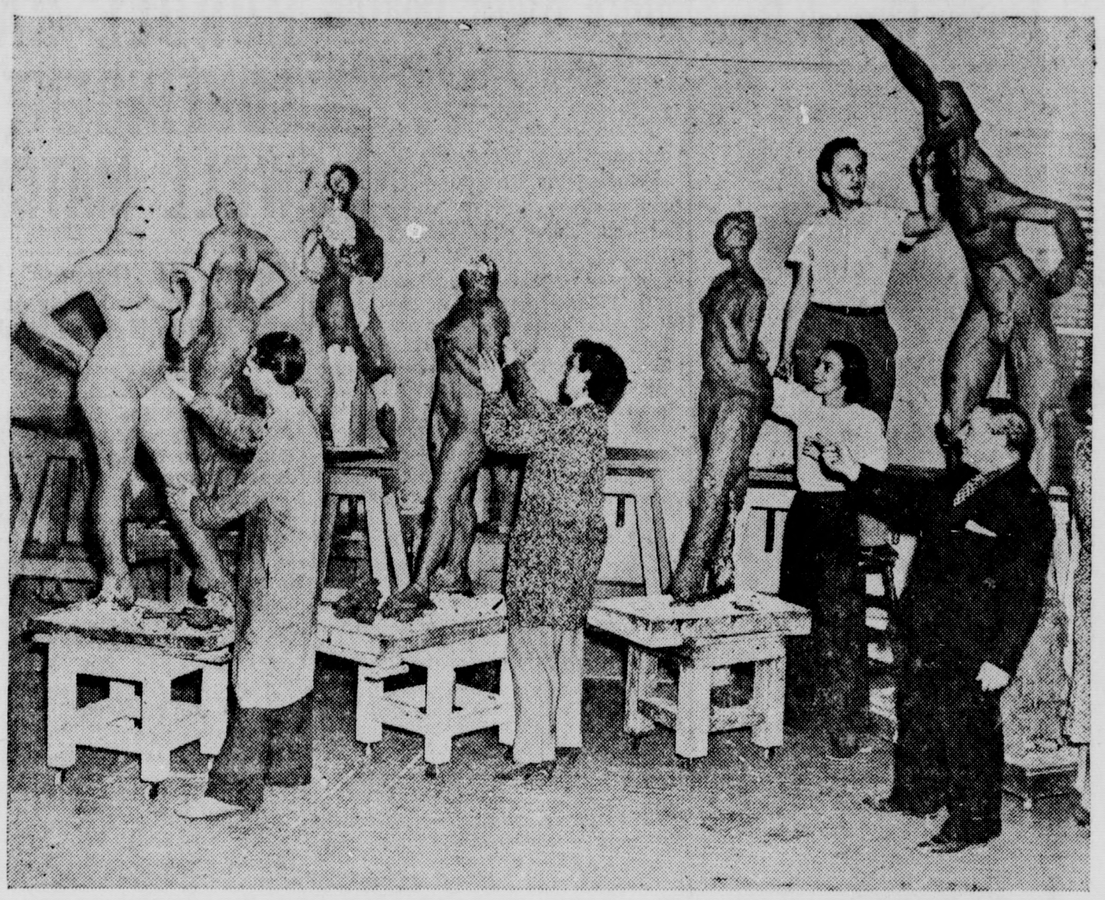
Biggest Stack To Be 'Smoked'

Selby (Contra Costa Co.).—The world's tallest smokestack, just completed at the plant of the American Smelting and Refining Company here, will be "smoked" on October 1. It is 605 feet tall, has a diameter of 44 feet at the base and is choked down to a diameter of thirteen feet at the top. The stack is five feet higher than one in a smelter at Osaka, Japan, which formerly held the altitude record. The tall stack was designed to carry fumes far away from adjacent agricultural lands and to create stronger drafts for the furnaces in the plant.

'Corpse' Sits Up, Objects

San Jose.—A "corpse" being prepared for burial here startled funeral attendants out of their wits when he suddenly sat up and objected. The family of A. J. Greiner had called Coroner C. C. Spalding to the 70-year-old man's home with word of his death. Spalding said that while he and attendants prepared to remove the "lifeless" form, Greiner suddenly gasped: "I don't want a doctor." He recovered without one.

This Doesn't Mean All Collegians Are Chiselers



Elkins Park, Pa.—When students return soon to their studies at Temple university, they will resume their lessons in sculpture. They are shown here learning modeling under the direction of Boris Blai in the university's Stella Elkins Tyler school of fine arts. Classes in bronze casting will follow.

Always Beautiful

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

ZINNIAS, gardenias, it's all the same to me,
There isn't any difference, as far as I can see.
Hothouse flow'rs or ones like ours, I always think and say
That anything is beautiful, is pretty in a way.
Buttercup or gutter pup, an orchestra, a bird,
Always something to be seen or something to be heard,
Alleyway or valley way, a country road, a street,
Always something to be found, and always something sweet.

Silken hose or cotton clothes, it's all the same to me,
There isn't any difference, as far as I can see.
Womenfolk are human folk, whatever they may wear,
Whether cotton, whether silk, I never really care.
Janitors and senators, in overalls or what,
Something good in all of them, the rest to be forgot.
Fellowmen, if yellow men, or white or black or red,
Chilly till they find a fire, and hungry till they're fed.

Many things and penny things, it's all the same to me,
There isn't any difference, as far as I can see.
All we own, however known for property or lands,
All we own is in our hearts and never in our hands.
Things we love are far above whatever we possess,
Things we feel, not things we have, will bring us happiness.
What we need, not much indeed, and then our loves and dreams,
And life is always beautiful, or so it always seems.

© Douglas Malloch.—WNU Service.

Intimate With Chic

THE lovely flower may have been born to blush unseen, Milady, but not you. Anyway, what chance could you have of going unnoticed when you wear one of these exciting new frocks by Sew-Your-Own—not the Ghost!

Cool, Cool, Cool.

The clever new dress at the left is as young as you are, and in dotted Swiss you'll be as crisp, pretty, and cool as though you bloomed always in an air-conditioned room. A little frou-frou here, a little swing-swing there, and throughout a dainty new appeal that's irresistible. You can be certain of success too, because Sew-Your-Own has made everything easy for you in the step-by-step sewing instructions.

We Only Heard.

Maybe we're wrong, Little Sis, but we heard that this is the dress Mommy has her heart set on for you. You know princess lines that flare, and puff sleeves that g you that cunning big-little- look go over well with both m er and you. You may have button all the way if you like makes laundering easy and smart. Mommy will let choose the material if you You won't go wrong on gingh silk crepe, broadcloth or perc So here's hoping, Little Sis.

Vivacious Version.

Thumbs up on taffeta; e right for pattern 1349! It's a ture-pretty frock with a knack bringing out the best in you your escort. It's a dream waltz time; it's supreme luncheon or afternoon wear. happy idea is to cut one c with short sleeves for now, other with the long style in fallish fabric for that popu season just ahead.

The Patterns.

Pattern 1341 is designed sizes 12 to 20 (30 to 38 bust). S 14 requires 4½ yards of 39 i material plus 2⅛ yards of r chine pleating.

Pattern 1828 is designed sizes 4, 6, 8, and 10 years. S 6 requires 2⅛ yards of 35 i material plus ¼ yard contrasti

Pattern 1349 is designed sizes 12 to 20 (30 to 38 bust). S 14 requires 4⅛ yards of 39 i material; with long sleeves yards. To trim as pictured, yards of ribbon are required gether with 1⅛ yards for the bo

Send your order to The Sew Circle Pattern Dept., 149 N Montgomery Ave., San Francis Calif. Patterns 15 cents (in coi each.

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

Bedtime Story by Thornton W. Burgess

SAMMY JAY CALMS DOWN

EVERYBODY on the Green Meadowns and in the Green Forest who heard Sammy Jay thought he had gone crazy. He certainly acted as if he were crazy. He couldn't sit still long enough to answer questions, but flew here and flew there, and flew everywhere, all the time screaming so fast that he mixed his words all up. It was no wonder that his neighbors thought Sammy Jay was crazy.

But he wasn't. No, sir, he wasn't. He was just excited, terribly excited. And it was all because of what he had seen deep in the Green Forest. But his little neighbors didn't know anything about this, and so they thought that something was wrong with Sammy's head, and they said to each other: "Poor Sammy Jay. Isn't it too bad? What could have happened to make him go crazy?"

He hunted up Unc' Billy Possum and asked him what all the fuss was about.

Now, all this made Sammy worse than before. You know, when you try to tell a thing and people cannot understand you, you are very apt to grow impatient. Most people are, anyway. And it was so with Sammy Jay. He tried to tell what he had seen, but was so excited that his words tumbled over each other and were so mixed up that no one could understand what he was trying to tell, and this made Sammy more excited than ever, so that his talk was more mixed up than e.r. Worse still, he began to lose h.. temper, and he quite lost it. So when Blacky told him to come to the Lone Pine with him, Sammy went.

"Now, Sammy, tell me all about it," said Blacky, when they were comfortably seated in the Lone Pine. So Sammy began at the beginning and told his story, and this time he told it quite straight, for every time he began to get excited Blacky would fix his sharp eyes on him in a way that made Sammy feel uncomfortably, and he would at once calm down. It was a queer story Sammy told, and when he had finished Blacky the Crow looked as if he didn't believe a word of it. Poor Sammy saw this.

"You don't think I am crazy, too, do you, Cousin Blacky?" he asked.

"I don't know," replied Blacky. "I really don't know what to think."

© T. W. Burgess.—WNU Service.

Graphic Golf

By BEST BALL

SETS PRO PACE

ALF PADGHAM was the British professional golfer of the year 1936. His crowning achievement was winning the British Open title but even prior to this event he had won several major events. His yearly earnings total as well as his average score would compare favorably with that of high bracketed American pros. To win such an amount of money in English tournaments, one must have a monopoly on the prize events and it is just such a golf tycoon that Padgham proved to be. Padgham can put plenty of power and subsequent distance to his drives but they are not the result of great physical leverage but rather the product of smooth, leisurely swinging. This is the hallmark of the consistent golfer who can shoot par golf for round after round. Bobby Jones once observed that he had never known a first class golfer who did not possess large hands and feet. Padgham can boast of the former in good measure. To the English observer they compare favorably with Harry Vardon's, which means the ultra in British praise. While Padgham's game is now well rounded there was a time when his putting was the weak sister of his game. Practice cured this and his smooth flowing stroke is now good enough to more than hold its own with golf's greatest.

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

Foreign Words and Phrases

La beaute sans vertu est une fleur sans perfum. (F.) Beauty without virtue is like a flower without perfume.

Giuoco di mano, giuoco di villano. (It.) A practical joke is a villainous or vulgar joke.

Ruat caelum. (L.) Let the heavens fall.

Sapiens qui assiduus. (L.) Wise is he who is settled; that is one who has landed property.

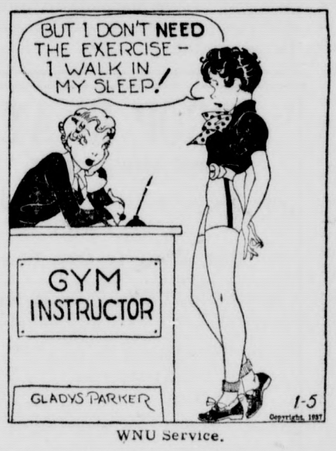
Dare pondus fumo. (L.) To give weight to smoke; to give importance to trifles.

Est modus in rebus. (L.) There is a medium in all things.

Al piu. (It.) At most.

Consuetudo pro lege servatur. (L.) Custom is observed as a law.

Mopsy



WNU Service.

First-Aid to Ailing House

By ROGER B. WHITMAN

DULL DOOR KNOBS

TWO years ago a Colonial house was built in my neighborhood; small but very charming in design and appearance. It was quickly bought and occupied. The new mistress was very proud of it, and tried to keep it in its new condition. But inevitably, it began to deteriorate. One thing that greatly troubled her was the appearance of the hardware of the front door; the door knob and its plate, the push button and the knocker. When new, these were shiny brass, and weekly polishing was part of the house-mistress' schedule. After a year or so, however, she found that the metal no longer responded.

A glance was enough to show that the brass did not go all the way through; that it was only on the surface. The body of the hardware was steel, and was exposed as polishing took off the brass plating. The builder saved a little money for himself in using brass-plated steel instead of solid brass, although at the most it could not have been more than a dollar or two.

My advice was to replace the cheap metal with other pieces of solid brass, which could be had at any well stocked hardware store.

One disadvantage of steel hardware is that in time the paint around it becomes stained with rusty drip. With solid brass this does not occur.

• • •

PAINT ON WINDOW SILLS

Window sills and the rest of the inside trim around a window are usually finished with the same kind of paint that is used on the walls and other parts of a room. This inside paint is not intended to be exposed to weather; yet when a window is open, the window sills are no better protected then if they were outdoors. For this reason it is paint on the inside window sills that first becomes damaged. For protection, window sill paint and the paint on other nearby parts of a window can be given a coat of spar varnish. This, of course, is glossy but even so, it is better than the cracking, peeling, and even disappearance of the paint.

© By Roger B. Whitman
WNU Service.

Rough Rider

A dyed quill shading from bright red to dark green is stuck through the upturned brim in a new version of the "Rough Riders'" hat. The body of the hat is henna-red felt. The rounded crown is low.

Love, Honor and Obey

--ER, PARDON ME, MAM-- DOES CHARLIE PARSONS LIVE HERE--WE-L-L-L---WELL-- HOWDY, CHUCK---HEH, HEH-- FOR A MINUTE THERE, VUH HAD ME!!
JOE JAY
COMPANY ALWAYS DROPS IN, WHEN WE'RE HELPIN' TH' WIFE WITH TH' EVENING CHORES—

CHEW LONG BILL NAVY TOBACCO 5¢ PLUG

GO FARTHER
BEFORE YOU NEED A QUART

Don't worry about your car... enjoy it. Most of the annoying troubles of motoring come through improper lubrication. Take care of that and you won't have to bother with much else. Quaker State gives your car the safest possible protection, because there's "an extra quart of lubrication in every gallon." And that's why you don't have to add quarts so often. Quaker State Oil Refining Corporation, Oil City, Pa.

Retail price . . . 35¢ a quart

BRISBANE SUN
AND
First Township Tribune
A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER
Published Every Saturday

E. PITSCHKE .....Publisher

ldress all communications to The Brisbane Sun, 3317 San Jose Avenue, Daly City, California

The Brisbane Sun is Entered as Second-Class Matter at the Post Office Brisbane, California, under at act of March 3, 1879.

Subscription rate upon request. Single copies 5 cents

OCKAWAY BEACH PEDRO VALLEY

Building goes on and on in this cality. Several houses give promise being quite pretty in time, when mpleted and surrounded by future rdens. Others reveal the amateur uilder. They go up slowly, unskilly, and with evident difficulties r inexperienced carpenters. It is a onder that the state does not prode a practical school for builders, it does for those who wish to learn w to drive automobiles, free of harge, and with an amateur certifite of skill. In such case, a man uilding his own home would not read a visit from the inspector, or e mandate to pull down the struc re because it failed to conform to uilding rules.

True, some men, new to the science building, have the knack without er taking a lesson. But the majory do seem to need an official hint two about how to put a foundaon under a house, set up the roof eams and lay the floors, so that the sult shall be at once handsome and cure.

* * *

A festive barbecue was held, Sunay of this week at the Rees place, edro Valley, preceded by a horseack party along the hill trails. uests were Mayor Jack Lawson, Ir. and Mrs. Stell, Mr. and Mrs. oward and son, of St. John's Wood, Ir. and Mrs. Stein, Dr. and Mrs. indsey and Mr. and Mrs. Loeffler f the Marina, San Francisco. Local uests were William Beeler, Mr. and Irs. Rees and Jim Molinari. The arbecued steaks were served with eans and sweet corn on the cob.

* * *

Chris Pavlos of Rockaway Beach ffered a crushed foot, Tuesday of is week, when the gate of a road uck fell on it. Chris bravely tried keep on working, but finally he ad to be taken to Dr. Shawk for elief.

* * *

Mrs. Jennie Bicknell has returned om her vacation at Angels Camp. he arrived at home in time to help lorence Troglia celebrate her birthay, bringing a cake with her from San Francisco baker, only to disover that Annabelle, urged on by er aunt, had also baked a cake for lorence. Mrs. Hertha Rich, who is lways a kind neighbor, knowing hat Mrs. Bicknell was away, got usy and baked a cake, too. Florence ill probably remember those three irthday cakes for a long time to ome. Many happies to her!

* * *

Josephine Lack has been given noice to remove her pet farm from lockaway canyon, as the owner of he land intends to build a house n the property. Where else Mrs. ack will find an appropriate spot or her many pets is a question that e trust will be solved with satisaction to all parties.

* * *

Edgar Bailey Jr., who is employd in the airplane business in San Diego, is expected to arrive at the Bailey home in Rockaway the end f this week to rejoin his wife and pend his vacation with his mother, Mrs. Coletha Bailey, and the rest f the family.

* * *

Little Mary Glover has recently eturned from the hospital after an ttack of appendicitis. The Glovers re rebuilding their home at the top f the hill and putting in a number f improvements.

* * *

Angelo Champi did his "one good ct for the day," Saturday of last week, when he helped an old lady up a difficult hill, including in the kindness a small boy and a dog. All were properly grateful.

* * *

Mrs. Shawk of Rockaway went to the city on Tuesday. The Shawks are adding a sun room to their home. It is being constructed by their son Bill, aided by Jim.

* * *

A member of Mrs. Jennie Bicknell's household, in a mischievous whisper, suggests that they're wondering. "Her name was Bicknell when she left for Angels Camp. We wonder what it is now!" Showing that talk about bringing home a handsome cow-puncher, or a gold miner, might not be all talk, at that. Jennie admits that she doesn't tell all she knows.

* * *

Mrs. Arthur Williams, Mrs. Sanchez and her daughter Peggy of San Francisco, spent Wednesday of last week at Shelter Cove as guests of the Lewises.

* * *

The Peter Haugaards entertained Mrs. Woodworth, her son, and Mrs. Christensen and her children, at their home in Shelter Cove, Tuesday of this week.

* * *

Shirley-Beth Bryant had her fourth birthday on Wednesday. The entire Bryant family celebrated the event by going to the zoo for an all day picnic. Many happy returns, Shirley-Beth!

WANTS ENTIRE FAMILY TO COME TO STATE FAIR

Nonagenarian Invites Over Eighty Of Progeny To Visit Sacramento

(Continued from Page 1)

He backs statements with a huge family Bible, in which is inscribed the record of every important event in his and his children's lives.

Singley was married twice, first in 1871 to Nellie Cricket of Nevada City, to whom ten children were born. Divorced in 1896, he married Anna J. Rhodes of Yreka, to whom were born ten boys and two girls. The youngest was born when Singley was 75 years old.

"We decided to hold a reunion this year at the fair because I believe the 1937 fair will top them all," Singley told Postman R. D. Hays, as he handed over 80 invitations to the reunion. He said:

"I want the entire family to see what a great state they live in."

OBSERVATION OF VARIOUS THINGS IN OUR CAPITAL

The Third-Term Bugaboo Is Subject Of Much Conjecture In Washington

(By Hart Goodrich)

"Will President Roosevelt seek a third term in 1940?" is the question on the lips of many here in Washington, as well as throughout the United States. His constructive program and brilliant generalship as President have made him one of the most popular leaders this country has ever known. There is no question but that he would receive support from most of us for a third term—if he should run for it.

Although there is nothing in the Constitution to prevent one President from remaining in office for more than two terms, there has been a great deal of prejudice to a third term in he past. It may be interesting to look back into our country's history to find out why.

President George Washington's refusal to run for a third term has been the strongest factor in establishing opposition to a third term. What most of us do not know is that Washington was very emphatic against limiting the presidential tenure in the Constitution.

Washington's letter to Lafayette in 1778 explains his attitude toward a third term:

"There are other points in which opinions would be more likely to vary, as, for instance, on the eligibility of the same person for President after he should have served a certain number of years. Guarded so effectively as the proposed Constitution is in respect to the prevention of bribery and undue influence in the choice of President, I confess I differ widely from Mr. Jefferson and you as to the necessity or expediency of rotation in that office. * * * I can see no propriety in precluding ourselves from the services of any man who on some great emergency shall be deemed universally most capable of serving the public."

This statement is quite as explicit as Washington's later action. To understand his refusal to serve a third term, we must remember that Washington's greatest pride was in the term "Foremost Farmer in America." To his own estate he introduced advanced farming methods through his own experiments and study of the work of others. His great leadership of his country in the Revolution was undertaken as a serious duty, devoid of personal ambition, and with a sense of regret that it must necessitate his leaving Mount Vernon. Could it not have been that his refusal to serve a third term was due to a desire to return to Mount Vernon? Now that the first years of the Republic were safely past, did he not feel he could leave the affairs of state in other hands?

Whatever the answer may be, it was merely Washington's unexplained acion which set an anti-third-term precedent that has had far greater weight and sway than law itself. If we must have our prejudices, let us base them on a firm foundation of fact, not fancy.

Bride, 14, Groom, 22, Ignore Church Ban

Though church law said "no" to their marriage, civil law said "yes," so 14 year old Gertrude Antoinette Bourilier and her groom, Edmund Scott, 22, were pronounced man and wife by a San Francisco municipal judge recently. The couple was denied by Archbishop John J. Mitty a request that their marriage forego traditional Catholic banns which would have delayed their wedding three weeks. They were set on marrying "immediately." In denying the request the archbishop said, "Gertrude is too young to marry. She should wait at least a month; then she would be 15." The prelate did not forbid the marriage, but declined a dispensation of the rule regarding publication of banns, necessitating a delay of at least three weeks. Bride and groom are shown "house hunting."

Standard Signs For Wreck Removers

A standard for signs to be used by tow cars while removing wrecked vehicles from the highway was issued today by the State Motor Vehicle Department.

The signs, which are required by state law, are to be at least twenty-four inches square showing the words "slow—wreck," each word to be twenty inches long with black letters five inches high, against a yellow background.

An approved red reflector is to be placed in the upper left hand corner on the face of the sign.

The department hopes that these regulations, if followed, will prevent motorists from colliding with wrecking cars engaged in the removal of wrecks.

EXAMINE TIRES

Tires should be dismounted from the rims and examined for pebbles, glass and other substances before starting on long trips.

Rims should be cleaned and given a coating of graphite before reassembling.

If Mr. William Conroy of Pedro Point, who is on a business trip in the East, doesn't terminate his trip soon all of his immediate neighbors will run out of sugar—trying to keep his pet quiet.

DROP IN AT
3030 MISSION ST.

and inspect these fine bargains in USED CARS

"Our Word Is Our Bond"

1930 FORD COACH, large wheels, good tires, new paint.....$175.00

1936 PLYMOUTH COUPE, like new, with new car guarantee $685.00

1930 SMALL BUICK coupe, A-1 condition $165.00

1931 CHEVROLET sedan, A-1 condition $210.00

1933 DODGE business coupe, 6 wheel job, all new tires, new paint, guaranteed $425.00

1936 DE SOTO SEDAN, with new car guarantee $765.00

1933 CHRYSLER coupe, rumble seat, A-1 condition $395.00

1931 NASH coupe, rumble seat, only 1 owner $245.00

1936 DODGE sedan in perfect condition, new car guar.-$200 down

1929 CHRYSLER 65 roadster, in good shape $95.00

50 Others to Choose From

JESS LANNING
3030 MISSION ST.

SPECIAL ON
Montebello and General Enterprise
CALIFORNIA WINES
Claret 60c per gal.
Sweet Wine $1.15 per gal.
Dry Wine 95c per gal.

WE CARRY
A Full Line of
MARIN DELL DAIRY PRODUCTS

STARTING JULY 1—
Meat department will be open on holidays and Sundays to serve you.
QUALITY MEATS—REASONABLY PRICED

BEER ON ICE—
4 Bottles for 25c
100 cases of
PILSENGOLD BEER
to go on this special

BRIGHTON MARKET
SHARP PARK Phone S. P. 2891

More Night Deaths Than In Daylight

Fatalities, caused by collisions on the highway at night have skyrocketed during the past few years, while deaths from wrecks happening in daylight show a moderate trend downward, an analysis by the Department of Motor Vehicles shows.

In 1930, according to the report, 1075 fatal accidents occurred in daylight hours, as against 1032 at night. In 1936 there were 1107 deaths during the day, as compared with 1713 in darkness.

The increase in night fatalities, it is stated, can be explained chiefly by two factors—drunkenness and speed. Approximately 28 per cent of night deaths involve drunkenness. Most of these accidents occur from midnight on into the early morning hours and frequently involve pleasure seekers returning home from parties.

There seems to be a prevailing notion among drivers that when the traffic density is small it is relatively safe to drive at high speed. The mounting toll of highway deaths at night proves this is not true.

PRINCELY REMUNERATION

The porter, having deposited the luggage on the seat, stood by to receive his tip.

The man carefully placed a penny in his hand.

"Princely remuneration!" said the traveler, noting the porter's disappointment. "Princely! Work it out. It took you thirty seconds to find me a seat. I'm paying you at the rate of ten shillings an hour!"—tit-Bits.

Mrs. Norris Christian entertained Mrs. Ann Bowman of Sharps Park and Mrs. L. Stewart of San Francisco at an enjoyable luncheon at Scotty's, Tuesday of last week.

HURDLE RACE CONTINGENT IS WELL MATCHED

"Sport Of Queens" Event Most Closely Contested At Baden Kennel Club

(Continued from Page 1)

favorites, set the pace in the race, only to give way to Harry Elfrink. Both were overtaken by Jack Roche's expert jumper.

Brandy Flask, owned by the Elfrink kennels, has won his share of races due to his ability to run fast in the final stages. He has come from behind both Harry Elfrink and Sailor Joe.

It appears that among these four the championship will ultimately rest. Each has run the futurity hurdle race in 30 3-5 seconds, best time of the meeting.

The box score:

Dogs—	Sts.	1sts	2nds	3rds
Dutch Ruether	21	3	3	4
Harry Elfrink	5	3	1	1
Sailor Joe	12	2	6	1
Brandy Flash	18	3	5	2

Harry Elfrink's record in the hurdles is by far the best, but Dutch Ruether's recent improvement may force him to second place.

GARDENERS TAKE NOTE

Dear Editor: "How can I distinguish young plants from weeds?"—Reader.

Dear Reader: 'From long experience I've found that the only way is to pull them all out. The ones that come up again will be weeds."

Gus and Julia

Invite You to Rockaway Beach
Dinners to Order

SANDWICHES—REFRESHMENTS
SHORT ORDERS

WHITEHOUSE INN

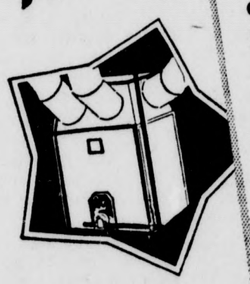
GAS HEATING SUMMER SALE
10% OFF

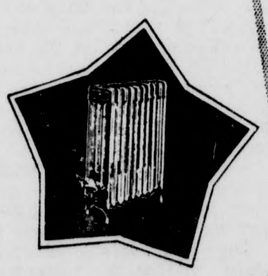
Buy Now!

THIS is the final month of the Money-Saving Sale on Gas Heating equipment. You save on the purchase price. You make no monthly payments until after October 1. You can have this equipment installed at once—use it at once without tying up any large sum of money. This winter and for many winters to come you will be glad you installed Gas Heat. And you will find that Gas Heating costs surprisingly little.

The 10% Off applies on both the price of the equipment and the complete installation of all types of gas heating appliances except Circulating Heaters. On Circulators the discount applies on the heater and installations where flue is available and connection is easy to make. Get your home ready for winter now and save this money.

SEE YOUR DEALER OR
P·G·and E·
Owned, Operated, Managed by Californians





Pay Later

This 10% Summer Discount does NOT apply on new home construction.

249-837

Visitacion and Bayshore News

BAYSHORE NEWS

The "round-up" of Voters' League members, held at the regular monthly meeting, Thursday night of last week, brough out one of the largest groups for a long time. Many old timers as well as a lot of new faces were seen in the assembly. After a brief business meeting everyone settled down for a bit of entertainment which was directed by Mrs. Lafford. Round-up spirit reigned over all. Songs of the range were led by Wid Praul, Tom Monahan, Jerry Toich, Jack Lawson, Jim Cash, Mrs. Percival and Irene Mardecich. Specialty numbers were offered by Jess Monahan on his radio guitar, and the two Percival children as usual delighted everyone present with their version of how a good cow hand would do it. Expert jokesters were led by Jack Lawson, George Andersen, Al Taylor, Jerry Malone and our worthy Chief of Police Williams. After the coffee and doughnuts everyone went home feeling happy and saying we must do it again.

* * *

The Goodladies Club met at the home of Mrs. Emma Taylor, Tuesday of last week. Birthdays celebrated were those of Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Little.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Max Little spent the weekend in Sonoma visiting relatives of Mrs. Little. Dickie will spend several weeks of his vacation there.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Vickers are the proud owners of a new car.

* * *

Nels Franzen is now enjoying his vacation. The first week he and his sister Marian spent with their grandparents in Paso Robles. This week Mr. Franzen and a friend are touring in Oregon and northern California.

* * *

Mrs. Nettie Richards accompanied her daughter and son-in-law on a weekend trip to Reno, Nevada.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cox, Arley King and Ethel Zelinka went horse back riding last weekend. Rumor has it that Mrs. Cox hasn't been the same since.

* * *

Mrs. Maude Wentworth celebrated her birthday last week.

* * *

Mrs. Olive Pierce is spending a week in Calistoga with Miss Elda Aselino.

* * *

Joe Edwards is suffering from a bad case of poison oak which became infected last week. Joe says this outdoor life just doesn't pay.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Filarski spent Sunday in Memorial Park with the Taylor family. Chief repast of the day was barbecued steaks prepared by Chef Al Taylor. Both families brought home a lot of huckleberries from the park.

* * *

Arthur Roy of Rio Verde street is making extensive alterations on his home. When finished the house will be a credit to the town of Bayshore and a great joy to the family. In addition to raising the structure and completely refinishing the house with stucco on the outside, Mr. Roy is building two new rooms and a porch on the rear. He is building inspector for Bayshore and no doubt the job will be well done.

* * *

Ernie Durbin is another one who is making improvement on his house. Last Sunday he stuccoed the new room at the back of the house.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw of McDonald avenue are to be congratulated on the birth of their little son. The young man is some weeks old, but felicitations are better late than never.

Visitacion Valley News

Fern Leaf Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, wishes to announce a change in the date of their whist party. Same will be held at Woodmens Hall on Tuesday evening, August 24.

* * *

Tom Feeney, chairman of the athletic division of the Bonvitas Club, is organizing an indoor horse-shoe team to challenge the Woodmen. Nine times champion of the league, Bill Allen has volunteered to train the boys, The soft ball and tug of war teams will be organized this week.

The committee on a get-to-gether chicken dinner and dance is kept busy for the affair to be held at the hall Sunday, August 29. This is to be for the members and their families and William J. Fitzgerald of the club will be chairman of the day.

The club has also announced their Thanksgiving turkey whist party to be held on Thursday evening, November 18.

* * *

Fern Leaf Camp 808, W. O. W., through its social committee chairman Mrs. Miller, will stage another birthday party. All members who have a birthday during May, June, July and August are to be guests of the evening, Wednesday, August 18.

The camp has added to its rolls a young lady, Miss Beatrice Allen, a graduate from the junior camp of the Woodmen. All children are eligible in a junior camp and at the age of 16 they graduate to senior camps.

Captain Thorne's horse-shoe team is practicing for their first game with the Bonvitas Club team shortly.

* * *

The formation of an orchestra and band, under the leadership of Howard Thompson of 271 Teddy avenue and Robert Lawson of Bayshore, is progressing nicely. There are still some vacancies. Anybody desiring to join may register with the above or at the Bonvitas Hall any Friday evening.

"School's Out!" Instructor Dismisses Air Hostess Class

Six West Coast nurses will soon be chosen to train for positions as air hostesses by one of the country's leading airlines as plans were recently laid for a new transcontinental route. New runs on the airline's schedule and "runs" made by Cupid on the "sky girl" ranks make the call for "pupils" a necessity. Requirements for the position are: The applicant must be a trained nurse, must be between 5 feet and 5 feet 4 inches, must be attractive and between 21 and 26 years old. Photo shows a training "schoolship," where student hostesses train for several weeks before taking to the air.

MODERN DRAMA IS DEPICTED IN NEW TYPE PLAY

Control Of Electrical Output Of Nation And Its Effect On Consumers

San Francisco theater goers filled the Alcazar to the last row in the gallery, Thursday night of this week, and hundreds were turned away when "Power," the Living Newspaper play, drama of modern industry and a new type of theatrical presentation, had its San Francisco premiere. The play was enthusiastically received. It is outstandingly the best presentation yet done by the San Francisco Federal Theater Project players.

"Power" outlines in unmistakable terms the importance of electrical current in the every day life of all Americans. Its drama consists, in part, of an exposition of the manipulation of big business in its efforts to corner and control electrical output and the effect on the consumer.

No angle has been overlooked by the compilers of the data on which the play is based; no detail seems to have been too little to escape investigation in the effort to combine entertainment with the great message that 'Power" brings.

As to the cast! San Francisco has always been the chosen home of people of the theater, and "Power" reflects this idea. Like the drama itself the program is a list, on the right side, of actors who have achieved renown in many parts of the country and in the days of road shows, professionals of yesterday, today and tomorrow. Among them are the consumer, played by Will Vedder; Sir William Gilbert, by Donald Gray; Michael Farraday, by Edgar Regan; George Simon Ohm, by William Harris; the business men, by Solly Carter, Wilbur Johnson, Mauritz Hugo, Ben Woolsey and Leon Forbes; Martin Insull, by Wilbur Johnson; Mayor Bangs, by J. Raymond Northcutt; Representative Jno. E. Rankin, by Rupert Drum; Mrs. Lane of 1913 and Mrs. Lane of 1926, by Kay Pickering; and Geraldine Allan and the Hosiery Clerks, by Vera Rothery and Arline Dodson.

There are nearly 100 actors and all are active. "Power" should be good for a long run.

AGRICULTURE IS TO STRESS VISIT OF AUSTRALIANS

Management Of State Fair Has Arranged Broadcast For Special Day

(Continued from Page 1)

10:30 a. m. The fair management is constructing a broadcasting studio especially for this program when the prime minister of Australia, the Right Honorable Joseph Aloysius Lyons, C. H., will send his greetings to America by short wave over NBC facilities and which will be rebroadcast from the fair. Welcomes will be expressed by Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace, from Washington, D. C., and by Governor Frank F. Merriam. Wallace will speak from his Washington office direct to the fair. Members of the distinguished Australian party will discuss agriculture in Australia, in America, and then compare the two systems.

The Australian tour is under the direction of E. G. Ham, of Bendigo, who arranged the good will gesture when he visited the Pacific Coast last year.

Almost a month will have been spent by the visitors in study of Pacific Coast agriculture before they arrive at the fair. The broadcast will reach Mexico and Canada. The day has been designated as International Day and Pierce will be chairman.

BATTER DOORS OF JAIL TO FREE PALS

Oak Lawn, Illinois, police reported that several gun men had freed two ex-convict pals from jail there, Sunday night.

They said that five or six men called at the jail, battered down a cell door and released the prisoners.

FISH AND GAME LAWS CHANGES EFFECTIVE DATE

Development Association Issues Comprehensive Report To Its Members

Changes in fish and game laws as result of Governor Merriam's recent disposition of the fish and game bills passed by the Legislature are shown in a detailed legislative report just released by the Fish and Game Development Association to its members throughout the state. The report includes an interpretation of the new laws and their effective date. Sportsmen are urged to familiarize themselves with the changes.

Marlin swordfish meat is taken off the market. Seasons on black bass, calico bass and crappie are shortened. Possession period of fish or game after seasons close is increased from five to ten days. So-called "derbies" excepting frog-jumping and striped bass contests, are prohibited except by permit of the Fish and Game Commission.

Important changes are made in deer laws. In District four and one-half, comprising Mono and Inyo Counties, the bag limit is reduced to one buck. It is again illegal to kill forked-horn bucks in District one and three-quarter. In the Coastal districts, from the northern boundaries of Mendocino and Glenn Counties to the southern boundary of Ventura County, the open deer season will be August 1 to September 15. In all the balance of the state the season will be September 16 to October 15. New type deer tags will necessitate dates being punched out instead of written in. Effective August 27, all used deer tags must be countersigned regardless of where the deer carcass is to be taken. Possession of deer tags while hunting, not legally issued to the holder, is now unlawful.

Copies of the Fish and Game Development Association's report may be secured while they last from either their San Francisco or Los Angeles office.

GASOLINE LEAKS

Galoline leaks at the drain plug or in the fuel line may be temporarily stopped by the application of common laundry soap.

FLORAL FIESTA NOW IN SEARCH OF "HOSTESSES"

Daly City Girls To Have Opportunity To Serve In Greeting Line

(Continued from Page 1)

City Record, is urging every girl in this community interested to enter her name.

It is no contest, the publicity bureau warned—there are no prizes; girls will simply be given the honor of designation as the most attractive in San Mateo County.

As hostesses the girls will greet visitors at the Fiesta, will pose for pictures for the publicity bureau and will wear attractive costumes throughout the event to aid in calling the attention of Pacific Coast people to the annual Fiesta celebration.

Within a few days entry blanks will be sent from the Fiesta headquarters to the Daly City Record office. Any girls wishing to have the honor bestowed on her may then fill out her name, age, weight, measurements and similar information for the publicity bureau.

If information is desired at once, girls may telephone Fiesta headquarters in San Mateo.

Any girl wishing to assist the publicity bureau in their selection may send a photograph of herself. A snapshot likeness is sufficiant; the bureau does not wish anyone to go to great expense in the matter.

Civic groups may support any girl for a Fiesta Hostess and may urge the publicity bureau to consider her as representative of the county.

Questioned about "blonde" senoritas, President Gibson declared he had conducted a thorough research and found that in the olden days there were light-haired senoritas; so color of hair, although the Fiesta is of Spanish theme, will not be a factor in the selection of hostesses.

Notice of Intention to Engage in the Sale of Alcoholic Beverages

August 10, 1937

To Whom It May Concern:

Notice is hereby given that fifteen days after the above date, the undersigned proposes to sell alcoholic beverages at these premises, described as follows:

Tiny's Cafe, Bayshore Highway at Brisbane.

Pursuant to such intention, the undersigned is applying to the State Board of Equalization for issuance of an alcoholic beverage license (or licenses) for these premises as follows:

On sale beer and wine.

Anyone desiring to protest the issuance of such license (s) may file a verified protest with the State Board of Equalization at Sacramento, California, stating grounds for denial as provided by law.

I. T. BURNS

August 14, 1937

Notice of Intention to Engage in the Sale of Alcoholic Beverages

August 10, 1937

To Whom It May Concern:

Notice is hereby given that fifteen days after the above date, the undersigned proposes to sell alcoholic beverages at these premises, described as follows:

101 Visitacion avenue, Brisbane, Calif.

Pursuant to such intention, the undersigned is applying to the State Board of Equalization for issuance of an alcoholic beverage license (or licenses) for these premises as follows:

On sale distilled spirits.

Anyone desiring to protest the issuance of such license (s) may file a verified protest with the State Board of Equalization at Sacramento, California, stating grounds for denial as provided by law.

J. C. BURNS

August 14, 1937

Notice of Intention to Engage in the Sale of Alcoholic Beverages

August 10, 1937

To Whom It May Concern:

Notice is hereby given that fifteen days after the above date, the undersigned proposes to sell alcoholic beverages at these premises, described as follows:

1 Pacific avenue, Pedro Terrace, Pedro Point, San Mateo County, California.

Pursuant to such intention, the undersigned is applying to the State Board of Equalization for issuance of an alcoholic beverage license (or licenses) for these premises as follows:

On sale distilled spirits.

Anyone desiring to protest the issuance of such license (s) may file a verified protest with the State Board of Equalization at Sacramento, California, stating grounds for denial as provided by law.

E. H. DANMANN

August 14, 1937

BAYSHORE THEATRE
BAY SHORE BLVD. & LELAND AVE.
Phone RAndolph 6200

Sat., Sun., Mon., August 14-15-16

The greatest musical of all time

Tues. and Wed., August 17-18—
ANN DVORAK in
MIDNIGHT COURT
—Also—
Gordon Jones - Betty Furness
—in—
THEY WANTED TO MARRY
Cash Night Tues. - Free Ovenware Wednesday

Thurs. and Fri., August 19-20—
LAUREL and HARDY in WAY OUT WEST
—Also—
John Beal - Joan Fontaine in
MAN WHO FOUND HIMSELF
CASH NIGHT THURSDAY

Your Drug Store
Is Ready for Summer
Sundries ..... Drugs
Visitacion Valley Pharmacy
Virginio Rossi, Prop.
Reasonable Prices
100 Leland Ave. RAndolph 4963

THE SUNNY SIDE OF LIFE

Clean Comics That Will Amuse Both Old and Young

THE FEATHERHEADS By Osborne © Western Newspaper Union

HA! GIVING YOURSELF A LITTLE TREAT?
YES—I GOT A YOUNGSTER TO GET IT FOR ME—
HMMMm! TASTES GOOD
?!?
Sample
WHERE YOU GOING?
DOWN TO THE STORE TO GET MYSELF SOME ICE CREAM—THAT TASTE I HAD—
Y's QUAK
TWO STRAWS IN ONE SODA MEANS THERE'S ONE MORE SUCKER

S'MATTER POP—How's Your Pooch on Burglars? By C. M. PAYNE

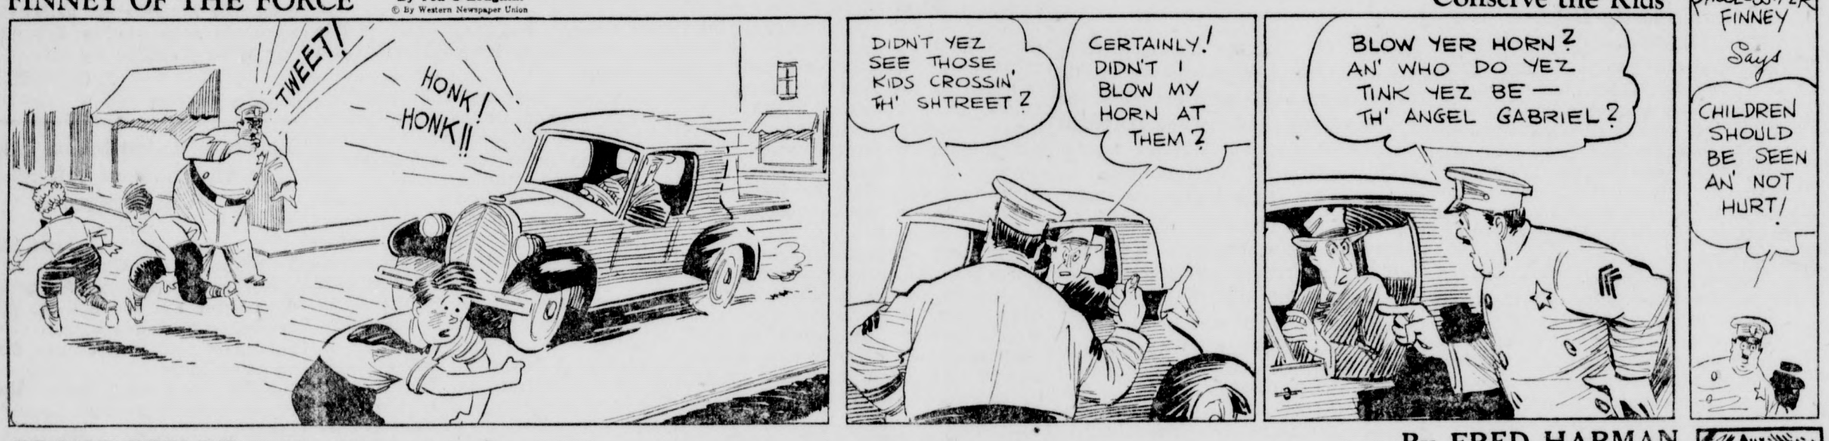
MESCAL IKE By S. L. HUNTLEY

Luke Is a Business Man Through and Through

SAY, PA, WHERE'S LUKE?
HE'S OUT FER A SPELL AN' I'M A-WATCHIN' TH' PLACE FER HIM. IS THAR ANYTHIN' I CAN DO FER YUH?
BUGLE
LUKE HUNT EDITOR
EDITOR IS OUT
MISS SALLY WANTS TO KNOW ABOUT TH' AD SHE GIVE HIM TO RUN—IT AIN'T IN TH' PAPER
WHAT AD IS THET?
IT'S ABOUT A LOST DOG
YUH MEAN TH' ONE WHAT'S FIVE DOLLARS REWARD FER FINDIN' TH' DORG?
YES, THAT'S IT
WAL, THET'S WHY LUKE LEFT HIT OUTTA TH' PAPER—HE'S OUT A-LOOKIN' FER TH' DORG HISSELF.
(Copyright, 1937 by S. L. Huntley, Trade Mark Reg. U. S. Pat. Office)

FINNEY OF THE FORCE By Ted O'Loughlin © By Western Newspaper Union

Conserve the Kids



TWEET!
HONK! HONK!!
DIDN'T YEZ SEE THOSE KIDS CROSSIN' TH' SHTREET?
CERTAINLY! DIDN'T I BLOW MY HORN AT THEM?
BLOW YER HORN? AN' WHO DO YEZ TINK YEZ BE—TH' ANGEL GABRIEL?
PHOOLOSSIFER FINNEY Says
CHILDREN SHOULD BE SEEN AN' NOT HURT!

BRONC PEELER — The Plan of Action By FRED HARMAN

YOU SAY MY MEN ARE TO HIDE AT TH' TUNNEL ENTRANCE TO TI RUSTLERS' HIDEOL.—AN' KEEP THEM FROM GETTING THROUGH?
THEY WON'T GET THROUGH BECAUSE I'LL SET A FIRE IN THE ENTRANCE WHEN I SEE THEM COMING—BUT REMEMBER—LEAVE RED BOLES TOME.
BUT HOW IS IT YOU WON'T BE WITH THEM WHEN THEY MAKE THE RAID?
I'LL OFFER SOME EXCUSE TO REMAIN IN CAMP AS ONE OF THE TWO USUAL GUARDS—JUST LEAVE THAT TO ME—YOU WATCH THE OUTSIDE.
BOYS—WE'VE GOT A REAL JOB OF ROUNDIN' UP T'MORROW—WITH TH' HELP OF WITHERS, WE'LL GET OUR CATTLE BACK, AN' GIVE RED BOLES TH' SURPRISE OF HIS LIFE.
BLITHERS—BAH! I'M COMMENCIN' T'THINK HE'S ALL RIGHT, TOO—
BY FRED HARMAN FEATURES

The Curse of Progress

The Hard Way

Sammy was not prone to overexertion in the classroom. Therefore his mother was both surprised and pleased when he came home with the announcement: "I got a hundred this morning."

"That's lovely, dear," she said, as she kissed the boy tenderly. "What was it in?" she asked.

"Fifty in composition and fifty in grammar."—Army & Navy Journal.

Emergency

A doctor had an urgent phone call from a gentleman saying his small son had swallowed his fountain pen.

"All right! I'll come at once," replied the doctor. "What are you doing in the meantime?"

Whereupon came the unexpected answer, "Using a pencil."

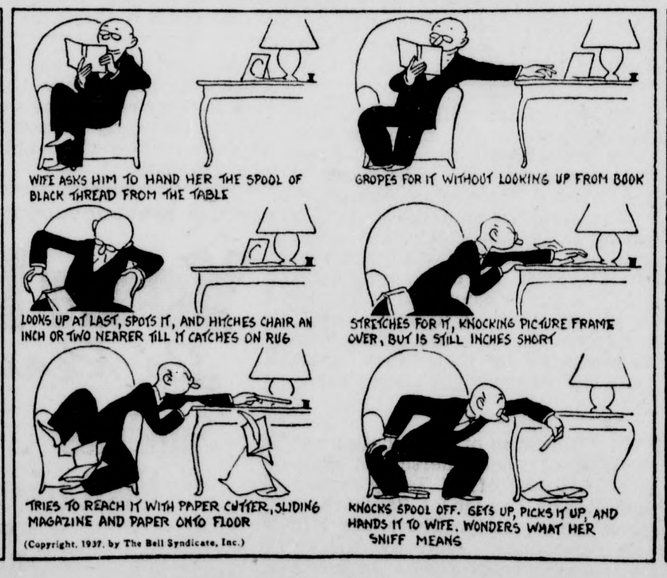
Robber

"See that man? He looks honest, but he defrauded me of half a million."

"Impossible."

"Yes, he refused me the hand of his daughter."

LONG REACH By GLUYAS WILLIAMS



WIFE ASKS HIM TO HAND HER THE SPOOL OF BLACK THREAD FROM THE TABLE
GROPES FOR IT WITHOUT LOOKING UP FROM BOOK
LOOKS UP AT LAST, SPOTS IT, AND HITCHES CHAIR AN INCH OR TWO NEARER TILL IT CATCHES ON RUG
STRETCHES FOR IT, KNOCKING PICTURE FRAME OVER, BUT IS STILL INCHES SHORT
TRIES TO REACH IT WITH PAPER CUTTER, SLIDING MAGAZINE AND PAPER ONTO FLOOR
KNOCKS SPOOL OFF. GETS UP, PICKS IT UP, AND HANDS IT TO WIFE. WONDERS WHAT HER SNIFF MEANS
(Copyright, 1937, by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Embroidery Adds That Smart Touch

Embroidered flowers that promise to be the "life" of your frock are these that you'll want for immediate stitchery. They're fun! They're easy to do! They're entirely in lazy-daisy and single stitch; the pretty floral border is a grand finisher for neckline, sleeves, or belt. Flower clusters, gay in garden colors of wool or silk floss, may adorn a blouse, or both bodice and skirt of any desired frock. In pattern 5853 you will find a transfer pattern of a motif 9 by 9¼ inches, one and one reverse motif 6¼ by 6½ inches; two and two reverse motifs 3¾ by 3¾ inches and two strips of border 2 by 15 inches; color suggestions; illustrations of all stitches used.

Pattern 5853

Send 15 cents in stamps or coins (coins preferred) for this pattern to The Sewing Circle Household Arts Dept., 259 W. Fourteenth St., New York, N. Y.

Please write your name, address and pattern number plainly.

Favorite Recipe of the Week

Chocolate Wonder Frosting

3 ounces (1 pkg.) cream cheese
2 to 3 tablespoonfuls milk
2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
2 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted
Dash of salt

Soften cream cheese with milk. Add sugar, 1 cup at a time, blending after each addition. Add chocolate and salt and beat until smooth. Makes enough frosting to cover 8 by 8 by 2-inch cake.

Note: This frosting, when tightly covered, may be kept in refrigerator several days before using.

Stop-Go Oratory

A "stop" and "go" signal light system has been installed in the Danish folkething, or lower house of the national legislature, to check undue verbosity. No longer can members run over time allotted for speeches.

A little box on the platform desk contains a green and red light. The green comes on warningly for one minute before the red signal, and when the red flashes the politician must stop talking at once, no matter what heights of rhetoric he has achieved.—Science Service.

Black Leaf 40 KILLS LICE
JUST A DASH IN FEATHERS.. OR SPREAD ON ROOSTS
OUR "Cap-Brush" Applicator makes "BLACK LEAF 40" GO MUCH FARTHER

High Discourses

Their discourses are as the stars, which give little light because they are so high.—Bacon.

666 checks COLDS and FEVER first day
LIQUID, TABLETS SALVE, NOSE DROPS
Headache, 30 minutes.
Try "Rub-My-Tism"—World's Best Liniment

WNU—12 32—37

Watch Your Kidneys!
Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste
Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.
Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength.
Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder may be burning, scanty or too frequent urination.
There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!
DOAN'S PILLS

WITH BANNERS

By Emilie Loring

© Emilie Loring.

WNU Service.

SYNOPSIS

Brooke Reyburn visits the office of Jed Stewart, a lawyer, to discuss the terms of an estate she has inherited from Mrs. Mary Armanda Dane. Unwittingly she overhears Jed talking to Mark Trent, nephew of Mrs. Dane who has been disinherited. Mrs. Dane had lived at Lookout House, a huge structure by the sea, built by her father and divided into two, for her and Mark's father. Brooke had been a fashion expert, and Mrs. Dane, a "shut-in," hearing her on the radio, had invited her to call and developed a deep affection for her. Mark discloses that Mrs. Dane had threatened to disinherit him if he married Lola, from whom he is now divorced. He says he does not trust Henri and Clotilde Jacques, Mrs. Dane's servants. He says he is not interested in an offer of Brooke's to share the estate with him. Leaving her department store job, Brooke refuses an offer to "go stepping" with Jerry Field, a carefree young man who wants to marry her. At a family conference she learns she must live at Lookout House alone, since Lucette, her younger sister who is taking her job, her brother, Sam, a young playwright, and her mother plan to stay in the city. Jed and Mark are astounded when they hear from Mrs. Gregory, a family friend, that she had witnessed a hitherto unknown will with Henri and Clotilde two weeks before Mrs. Dane died. Brooke had arrived just as she was leaving. Jed suggests that Mark open his part of Lookout House, get friendly with Brooke and try to find out about the will. Jed agrees to stay with him. Mark accepts Brooke's invitation for a family Thanksgiving dinner at Lookout. Mrs. Reyburn announces on Thanksgiving eve that she has been invited to England. Sam and Lucette decide to move in with Brooke and Sam plans to produce a new play locally. After the Thanksgiving dinner Brooke tells Mark that little of Mrs. Dane's silver collection is left. Jerry Field and his sister Daphne drop in and announce they will be neighbors for the winter. Sam adds them to the cast of his play. Later Inspector Harrison of the local police visits Mark and is informed about the missing will and silver. As Harrison leaves, Lola arrives. She announces that she and her new husband, Bert Hunt, have started a neighborhood filling station. Mark almost makes a break about the missing will and Brooke is suspicious. Returning home, she sees Lola talking covertly to Henri. "Mr. Micawber," Mrs. Dane's pet parrot is missing.

CHAPTER VI—Continued

—10—

"Cricky! I forgot! Jerry Field is coming to dinner. Thought we could all go to rehearsal together. Do you mind, Brooke?"

"Of course not, Lucette. Did you tell Henri to set a place for him?"

Lucette nodded before she greeted Jerry Field.

"How are you, stranger?"

"Little girls shouldn't be sarcastic, Lucette." He unfolded a green waxed paper. "For you, Brooke."

"Gardenias! I've never seen more perfect ones. What wax-like petals! What lovely leaves! Thanks billions, Jerry."

Brooke turned to the mirror and pinned on the flowers. She saw Jerry Field watching her as he said:

"I strive to please. Sam, you slave-driver, why did you call a rehearsal again tonight? We've been working every evening this week."

"What does that prove? Call what you've been doing working? I calls it playing. We'll run through the three acts tonight, and, m'lad, for the love of Mike, put some punch into your part, even if we are rehearsing with no props."

The dining-room was cheery with firelight and the flames of tall yellow candles, which matched to a tint the acacias in the bay window. The blue of bachelor buttons, the soft pink of carnations, the yellow of Souvenir roses in the golden bowl on the table repeated the colors in the rare Persian rug. The flickering lights threw fantastic patterns on the walls and smudged the butler's face with shadows as he drew out Brooke's chair. She smiled at her brother who sat opposite.

"Cheerio, Samuel. Something tells me that 'Islands Arise' will be the hit of next season. Picture your adoring family in a box at the opening, fairly swooning with pride when the audience yells:

"'Author! Auth—'"

The telephone interrupted. Henri answered it and returned to the dining-room.

"Probably someone panicky for fear she can't get tickets to the great and only show of the season, Sam," Brooke said on her way to the door.

In the living-room she answered the call:

"Brooke Reyburn speaking."

"This is Mark Trent. I want to show you something. Make an excuse to stay at home from rehearsal, will you?"

"Yes."

"Get Henri and Clotilde out of the house. Can you?"

"It's movie night in the village. They'll go."

"Phone me as soon as they start."

"I will."

"Good-by."

What could Mark Trent have to show her? His voice had been drenched with mystery. Brooke was projecting and rejecting answers to the question as she went back to the dining-room.

She wrinkled puzzled brows as she looked across the table at her brother.

"How many of what, Sam?"

"Has the little old memory gone blotto? Didn't you say the call was about tickets?"

"Don't beat me, Sammy. I thought it was. It was only a—an insurance agent who has been on my trail. How did the market behave today, Jerry?"

Field reported jauntily and in detail on the rise of certain of his pet stocks, and the shuttlecock of conversation was in the air again.

As Brooke poured coffee in the living - room after dinner, she planned to plead a letter to her mother as an excuse for staying away from the rehearsal; as property woman she wasn't important yet. She was positively tingling with curiosity. What had Mark Trent to show her? Why had his voice been hushed as if he feared he might be overheard?

"Boy, you wouldn't think old Micawber making his getaway would leave such a hole, would you? It's almost as if someone in the house had died." Sam's voice interrupted her thoughts. "When we get back from rehearsal we'd better make this find-the-parrot-night. Suppose he's hiding up in a tree on the grounds, Brooke?"

"If he is, Henri will get him. He was white when he told me he had lost the parrot. I'll slip into a coat, go out and whistle for him myself when you've all gone to rehearsal."

"What's the big idea walking out on us, Brooke?" Jerry Field demanded in his most spoiled-boy tone as he held Lucette's coat in the hall.

"I told you, a letter to Mother, and sandwiches to make. Bring the cast back here after rehearsal, Sam, for a bite to eat."

Lucette dashed out with the two men at her heels. As she watched from the porch, Brooke saw Jed Stewart join them from the Other House. Their voices and laughter drifted back. Did Jed know that Mark Trent had phoned? She waited, drawing in long breaths of the cold salty air, until the rear light of the car was but a red spark in the distance.

When she returned to the living-room, Henri was collecting cups and saucers. She watched him in the mirror while she pretended to be absorbed in fastening the two gardenias more securely to the shoulder of her lace frock. He stopped on the threshold, holding the silver tray.

"Look," He Whispered.

"Anything more this evening, Miss?"

"Nothing, Henri, except that I wish you would impress it upon Clotilde—I can't seem to—that when I order Rocquefort cheese dressing for a salad, I mean that, and not mayonnaise. This is the third time she has made the mistake."

"She thinks mayonnaise more suitable. You don't like Clotilde and me much, do you, Miss Reyburn?" His smile was an ugly thing, having under it the suggestion that it would be to her advantage to like them.

"I don't!" was on the tip of Brooke's tongue, but she caught the words back. With the production of the play so near, this was not the time to change servants. After that she would get rid of the couple if it meant doing the work herself. She temporized:

"Because I insist upon having my orders carried out, doesn't mean necessarily that I don't like you, Henri. Can anything more be done about finding the parrot?"

"I'll look round before I go to bed, Miss, but I think in the morning we'll find him huddled in a corner near the house."

"This is movie night in the village, isn't it?"

"Yes, Miss, though if you are to be alone and mind—"

"Of course you are to go, Henri." Brooke had an instant of panic. Suppose he insisted upon staying at home? "I shan't be alone long. Mr. Trent and Mr. Stewart will be here with the cast after rehearsal for a little supper."

"Will the supper keep up till late?"

"Probably, but we will take care of the dishes."

"Thank you, Miss."

"Have you put plenty of ginger-ale and seltzer water on the ice?"

"Yes, Miss. The mint is chopped and the fruit juices are ready for the drink just as you told me." Henri's eyes seemed but sparks in cavernous depths.

"Excuse me, Miss, you'd better like Clotilde and me. We could put you out of this house if we wanted to. Anything more?"

Brooke was too indignant to answer. What did the man mean by the threat he had inserted so casually between two sentences? What did he know? Had Jed Stewart and Mark Trent confided to him their suspicions as to "undue influence"? Were they grooming him to testify for them? Had they set him spying upon her? Should she repeat his threat and demand to know the truth when Mark Trent came? No. Better cool down. She was too furious now. She would wait until after Sam's play. That must go smoothly; it might be his big chance—after that—well, after that she would investigate a few things, she would find out why Mrs. Hunt and Henri were so friendly, to begin with.

With eyes wandering to the tall clock, ears strained to hear the chug of the servants' flivver on the drive, inhaling the scent of gardenias with every breath, her thoughts returned to Mark Trent's message. Why had he phoned? Perhaps she was dramatizing his voice, perhaps it hadn't been mysterious except in her imagination.

"There they go! I'd know the wheeze of their car if I heard it among a million. I'll wait five minutes before I phone Mark the Magnificent. Must be something in the air. First I have a hot chill and then a cold chill, I'm so excited."

She watched the clock. Dialed. Waited. Probably Kowa had gone to the movies. He—She put her mouth close to the transmitter.

"Mr. Trent? Brooke Reyburn. They've gone."

"Okay. I'll be there like a shot."

Brooke replaced the telephone. His voice was excited. It had set her nerves tingling. She would be at the front door to open it before he had a chance to ring.

In the hall she listened for his step on the terrace. Why did he take so long? His "like a shot" was more like an hour.

"I'm here," a low voice announced behind her.

In her surprise, Brooke leaned back against the door and looked up at Mark Trent. She never before had realized how tall he was, nor how black his gray eyes could be.

"How did you get in?"

"The connecting door upstairs. Took the quickest way. Lock that door. Give me the key. I'll put it in my pocket. Queer things are in the air. We won't take a chance at being locked in or—out."

That didn't sound as if Henri were his tool, Brooke thought, as she entered the living-room.

"Where is Mr. Micawber?" Mark Trent demanded, his eyes on the empty cage.

Brooke told him what Henri had told her.

"Um, lost him, did he? The plot thickens."

His voice was uncompromising, his eyes unflinching and direct as, hands in the pockets of his dinner jacket, his brows knitted, he looked at her.

"Ooch, I'd hate to battle with you," Brooke thought. "It would be like trying to dent a steel wall." Aloud she said:

"What is the mystery? It is a mystery, isn't it? I've been jittery ever since you phoned."

His smile was a flash of white teeth below his small dark mustache.

"Glad I got my Big Moment over. Can't have Sam monopolizing all the drama in the neighborhood. Sure the Jacques have gone?"

"I heard their car go out. One couldn't mistake its wheeze. I told Henri that we would have supper here for the cast after rehearsal and that he would not be needed."

"Fair enough." He caught her hand. "Step on it!"

Why was Mark Trent afraid to have Henri, his tool—if he were his tool — know what he was doing, Brooke wondered, as, side by side, they hastily mounted the winding stairs. She felt as if she were in a dream, as if at any moment she might waken to find herself snuggled in the wing chair before the fire. But the squeak of a tread was real; Mark the Magnificent's muttered execration at the sound was real; so was his grip of her hand. Why was he so careful about being heard? He appeared friendly with her; was that part of his plan, his and Jed Stewart's?

On the second floor before the door which opened into his house, he stopped.

"Look," he whispered. "I tried this, had a hunch I might get through quickly this way. When it opened, that key was in your side." He turned the knob. "Better leave it where it is. We don't want anyone to know that we have seen it. Come."

He followed her into the hall of his house and closed the door gently behind him.

He pressed a button which switched on a light in the floor above and ran up the stairs.

She followed slowly. Where was he taking her? It seemed hours since they had left her living-room. Suppose Henri slipped back and found her gone? Would he suspect where she was? Of course he had left the key in that connecting door. Who else would have done it? What business had he in Mark Trent's house? Did he come for instructions?

(TO BE CONTINUED)

Ask Me Another?

A Quiz With Answers Offering Information on Various Subjects

1. What causes leaves to change color in autumn?
2. Who said, "It is much easier to be critical than to be correct"?
3. Which are the lightest birds in proportion to their size that fly?
4. There were how many signers of the Declaration of Independence?
5. What is the total number of war medals that have been given to soldiers? Which medal was most widely distributed?

Answers

1. Gradual formation of cells at the stem of the leaf finally shuts off the supply of chlorophyl, or green coloring matter, and starts the formation of the gaudy autumnal colors.
2. The expression was used by Benjamin Disraeli in the house of commons on January 24, 1860.
3. The birds with great powers of flight, such as the sea-gull, are the lightest birds to fly. The common gull weighs only a quarter of a pound. Its bones are hollow and filled with air.
4. There were 56 signers of the Declaration of Independence.
5. The total of medals on record at the War department is 1,543,-721. The Victory medal, issued after the World war, is the most widely distributed.

Resist from the First

Resist thine inclination to evil in the very beginning, lest perhaps by little and little it draw thee to greater difficulty.—Thomas a Kempis.

Household Questions

Removing Tar.—Tar is easily removed from the hands and clothing with lard, followed by warm water and soap.

* * *

Washing Linoleum.—Dissolve a lump of sugar in the water when washing linoleum or oilcloth, and a brilliant polish will result.

* * *

Removing Wallpaper. — To remove wallpaper quickly, put a heaped tablespoonful of saltpetre to a gallon of water and apply freely with a whitewash brush while the water is very hot. The paper then can be stripped from the walls quite easily.

* * *

A Refreshing Drink.—Rhubarb juice makes a good beverage of pleasing tart flavor. Clarify the juice with water and add sugar to taste. It may also be combined with fruit juices.

WNU Service.

Extra Safe
COLLECTING LIQUID RUBBER ON FIRESTONE PLANTATIONS IN LIBERIA
An ever-increasing supply of rubber comes from these plantations. Savings made by controlling raw materials and by more efficient manufacturing and distribution make extra values possible at no extra cost.

BECAUSE in Firestone Standard Tires —

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST BLOWOUTS — eight extra pounds of rubber are added to every 100 pounds of cord by the Firestone patented Gum-Dipping process. By this process every cord in every ply is saturated with liquid rubber. This counteracts internal friction and heat that ordinarily cause blowouts.

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST PUNCTURES—because under the tread are two extra layers of Gum-Dipped cords.

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST SKIDDING—because the tread is scientifically designed.

YOU GET LONGER NON-SKID MILEAGE because of the extra tough, long-wearing tread.

Before leaving on your vacation trip, join the Firestone SAVE A LIFE Campaign. Let your Firestone Dealer or Firestone Auto Supply & Service Store equip your car with a set of new Firestone Standard Tires—today's top tire value.

FIRESTONE AUTO RADIO
6 All-Metal Tubes — 8" Dynamic Speaker. Save up to $20.00
$39.95
Includes universal control head
Custom Built Dash Mounting Available

SEAT COVERS
Coupes & Roadsters 89c UP
Coaches & Sedans $1.69 UP

BATTERIES
ASK ABOUT OUR "CHANGEOVER" PRICE

SAFE-FLEX FANS
$7.95

More Than 2,000 Other Auto Supply Items For Every Car Need

Firestone STANDARD FOR PASSENGER CARS

4.50-20	$8.70	5.50-17	12.50
4.50-21	9.05	5.50-18	12.95
4.75-19	9.55	5.50-19	13.10
4.75-20	9.85	6.00-16	13.95
5.00-19	10.30	6.25-16	15.65
5.25-17	11.00	6.50-16	17.25
5.25-18	11.40	7.00-16	18.70

Firestone SENTINEL

4.40-21	$5.65	4.75-19	$6.70
4.50-20	6.05	5.00-19	7.20
4.50-21	6.35	5.25-18	8.00

OTHER SIZES PRICED PROPORTIONATELY LOW

Firestone COURIER

4.40-21	$5.43	4.75-19	$6.37
4.50-21	6.03	30x3½ CL.	4.87

DON'T RISK YOUR LIFE ON SMOOTH WORN TIRES
DO YOU KNOW

THAT last year highway accidents cost the lives of more than 38,000 men, women and children?
That a million more were injured?
THAT more than 40,000 of these deaths and injuries were caused directly by punctures, blowouts and skidding due to unsafe tires?

At right is a section cut from a smooth, worn tire, with non-skid protection worn off. Tires in this condition are liable to punctures, blow-outs and skidding.

At left is section cut from a new Firestone Tire. Note the thick, non-skid protection against skidding, blow outs and punctures. Come in and see a demonstration.

Listen to the Voice of Firestone featuring Margaret Speaks, Monday evenings over Nationwide N. B. C. Red Network

JOIN THE Firestone Save-A-Life CAMPAIGN To-Day

BRISBANE LOCAL NEWS

By ROY EDWARDS

Chief Fred Schmidt is planning to ow his visitor Chief Henry Ginn om Texas around the Peninsula epartments, particularly the Red- ood City apparatus .... Chief Ginn as 24 years of smoke eating behind im .... this is not Henry's first ip, having been here during 1934 ... Hank's wife is here to see that e behaves himself according to ules and regulations .... Mrs. J. C. Moore is here, also from Texas, and s a very good authority on roses, as he operates an extensive rose nur- ery in eastern Texas .... Emma erkins was out for a short visit the ther day on a short vacation from er work .... Harold Getto and amily were out visiting with rela- ives Wednesday .... Dan Shed hreatens to come out and paint the own red some Saturday night .... e had better pick out a new color, we are tired of red .... Bob Burns ad to welcome a few boys the oth- r night from his native state, he is till looking for someone to outshoot im with a rifle .... Some Bayview self-styled bad man stopped one on the whiskers Saturday night and was cold for one-half hour, heh! heh! .... the firemen have their dawnce tonight being Saturday and more than welcome your patronage .... Jack Kinney is oiling up his rifle for a trip up into the deer country the first of September .... he usually packs off up to Humboldt County .... from reports there is a shortage of the animals this year .... Neva Johnson has been visiting her uncles Jack and David in town; but she managed to sneak away to go to the midget auto races Wednesday night with her chief moment and Hank Ginn and Harold Gatto .... saw Jewel "Ducky" Lewis sitting between Jack Corrigan and Jack Blanchard in front of Gull's; oh Harry, what are you going to do about that .... Frank Walch will start slinging plas- ter on his home any time now .... Captain Oliver Johnson hardly had time to remove his coat Wednesday evening when he had to take a bunch of boys up to fight a grass fire on Kings road .... Mrs. Couch missed what might have been a fatal hap- pening the other evening when a stray .22 bullet went through her front door and plunked into the wall above the chesterfield where she was sitting; wow! .... deputy sheriffs have apprehended the guys that did the fireing of the rifle .... imagine the mentality of a person fireing a rifle within the limits of our town .... The End.

NOTICE

I understand certain parties are accusing me of using funds intended for the Catholic Church building at Brisbane.

It is an untruth and if such parties will appoint a time and place to meet I will prove it a slander. Under certain circumstances I intend to take it to court.

(Signed)
Mrs. N. Brandenberg

NO PLACE LIKE HOME

"Auto trailers will never be able to take the place of a home?"

"No, they'll never be able to put a closet in one big enough to lose rubbers in."

A tourist stopped his car on the road and asked a little country boy how far it was to Smithville.

The little boy replied: "It's 24,999 miles the way you're goin', but if you turn around it ain't but four."

OPPORTUNITY IS GIVEN CITIZENS TO WRITE PLAYS

Federal Theater Project Invites Authors To Enter National Contest

(Continued from Page 1)

New York stage. Scripts must be submitted on or before September 30, 1937.

The Federal Theaters is particularly eager to obtain scripts based on observation of contemporary American life and the American scene, and will bear its particular needs in mind in making its award. To encourage the younger authors, contestants are limited to those who have not yet achieved in any commercial Broadway production more than one run exceeding three weeks on Broadway or twenty-eight performances on the road.

The Federal Theaters also reserves the right to produce the play, within six months of the first production, in other Federal Theaters throughout the country, all other rights remaining with the author.

The Federal Theater Project will also give professional production, under the Dramatics Guild 26-A form of contract, to such other plays submitted as seem to its judges worthy of production. Plays to which Federal Theaters reserves such production rights will be announced simultaneously with the announcement of the prize winning play, and will be produced within six months of this announcement, or later by mutual agreement with the author. All other plays submitted are released to their respective authors by the announcement of the prize winning script.

Plays submitted must be the work of residents of the United States of America and must be scripts not previously submitted to any of the established play reading bureaus of the Federal Theater Project.

Scripts must be submitted to the Play Policy Board, Federal Theater Projects, at the Chanin Building, 122 East Forty-second street, New York City, and should be marked "Federal Theater Contest for Dramatists Guild Prize." Return postage is not required. It is particularly requested that scripts which are finished earlier than the date set be submitted as soon as completed. Scripts should bear the author's name only on the title page, which will be removed before reading and filed, and the script identified by number in such manner that no reader shall be aware of the identity of the author. All due care will be taken of scripts, and those rejected will be returned to the author as promptly as possible, but the government does not assume liability for scripts lost or damaged. The contestant should in every case retain a copy.

You can help yourself and your home newspaper by patronizing your home merchants.

"MISS CALIFORNIA"

Phyllis Randall

Phyllis Randall, 21, who was recently chosen "Miss California" in a beauty contest at Venice, Cal. Miss Randall originally came from Charlotte, N. C., but will represent California at the national beauty show in Atlantic City, N. J.

SHERIFF APPOINTS DEPUTY TO VACANCY

Sheriff James J. McGrath on Monday of this week appointed Louis F. Lodi, for some time a Redwood City fireman, to the post of deputy sheriff to replace the late Floyd ("Pansy") Glennan.

Lodi's appointment became effective August 1, when he officially took over the position of jailer.

BRISBANE LOCALS

Jack Bratton, Fred Miller and Mr. Van Zind represented the Bayshore Post, American Legion, at the big Legion conclave. Many others from Brisbane and Bayshore also attended.

* * *

Jefferson Union High School will open Monday, August 23. The school bus will stop in front of the Jonas Drug Store at 7:45 a. m. to pick up students.

* * *

Mrs. Alice Estes caught another limit of fish over the weekend.

* * *

Major Dundas is still going strong. The boys say that last week proves that he is still up and at 'em.

* * *

Jack Bratton had a fine crowd at his club, Saturday night of last week. A Dutch luncheon was served to the many visitors enjoying the party.

* * *

Mrs. Netzer and family returned from Yosemite, the first of this week, and reported an enjoyable vacation.

* * *

Bob Netzer of the Annis Realty Company has placed all his faith in a rabbit's foot he was sent from Yosemite Valley, as on the day it arrived he sold Mrs. Annis' new Monterey home on Klamath street to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin L. High. Good luck to the Highs in their new home, and here's hoping Bob's "lucky foot" helps him to sell the Highs' old home on Humboldt road.

* * *

Henry L. Ginn, assistant fire chief of the Tyler, Texas, fire department, is here in Brisbane for a visit with his nephew. Mr. Ginn's wife and aunt, Mrs. J. C. Moore, accompanied him on the trip.

AUTO—TRAIN CRASHES

Automobiles struck trains through some carelessness or error of the motorist in 58 per cent of all night accidents at railroad crossings last year.

BRISBANE GENERALITIES

By Phil Sbriglia

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Johnson and family have moved to Sacramento where Mr. Johnson will be employed as mechanic at the new army air depot. We will miss you all, folks, and wish you success always.

* * *

A surprise birthday party was given to Marvin Hayes of Tulare street by his wife Nellie Hayes. Many friends were present to enjoy the occasion.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Unger of Mendocino street are renovating the interior of their home. Eddie and Birdie, Lavonne and Bobby Jr. and Angelo Opelini of San Francisco made a few days auto trip to Humboldt County.

* * *

Ruth and Geneva Brewer are here from Santa Rosa to make their accustomed visit with "Uncle Kelly" of Santa Clara street. Kelly is very proud of them.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Leach, I understand, are quite expert at upholstering. Their daughter, Mrs. Range, is tickled pink with her fine looking chairs, thanks to mom and pop.

* * *

Vera Blair has been laid up by "Old Man Flu", but she beat him off and is now feeling O. K. again. "Pop" Blair was nursing a cold also and he too is feeling fine now. Take care of them, Walt.

* * *

Our Social Club will have a neat looking front very shortly and I'm sure we will all be proud of it.

This is the 2nd anniversary of your correspondent's coming to good old Brisbane. They have been two very happy years and he expects to spend many more of them among you. He has found a wonderful home with Jack and Ione Kinney of Alvarado street.

* * *

George Snell recently left for Maine to join his wife who has been visiting with their son the past few months. They expect to return home to Brisbane this coming fall.

* * *

"Sugar" Smith, her sister Mrs. H. P. Hayes of Cedar Rapids and George Manz of Burlingame motored to Santa Cruz, Carmel and way points this past weekend.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lamont have returned to Brisbane after spending the past several months up near Fort Bragg. Glad to have you back with us, folks.

SAYS HE WILL NOT MARRY SOCIETY GIRL

Prince David Mdivani has denied reports in Roman society circles that he would marry Miss Muriel ("Honey") Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Johnson of New York.

S. J. GUARDINO, M. D.
—PHYSICIAN - SURGEON—
Physio-therapy
Phone RAndolph 5984
OFFICES and RESIDENCE
400 Mendocino Street
Corner Visitacion Avenue
24 Hour Service
(Special attention to diagnostic problems).

DAN'S:---
SMOKE SHOP
Wines - Liquors - Tobaccos
Billiards
497 San Mateo Ave.
San Bruno Phone S. B. 89

FOR FUN
If you want an evening packed full of enjoyment come to Dick's where fine music and jollity reign and fun is king! Good crowds and a moderne cocktail bar guarantee a good time!
Carnival Night Free Supper
Every Tuesday Every Thursday
DICK'S TOWER
BRISBANE

Baden
KENNEL CLUB
South San Francisco
11 RACES NIGHTLY
Except Sunday
FIRST RACE 8:15
ADMISSION 10¢
No Unaccompanied minors Admitted
FREE PARKING HEATED GRANDSTAND

EXPRESSING
Brisbane Co-operative Trucking Company
C. P. SNELL, Owner
R. SMITH, Gen. Mgr.
Hauling Anywhere in California
RATES REASONABLE
Phone Randolph 1710 or Call Wilson's Auto Repair

FOR SALE—250 fryers. 3 for $1.. Call 107 Sierra Point Rd. Brisbane.

FOR SALE—4 months old English setters. Just right for training. Call C. H. Wilkinson, Picnic Grounds, Sharp Park.

FOR SALE—Domestic sewing machine. Reasonable. Call 225 McDonald avenue.

MODERN
FIXTURE & CABINET WORKS
PARTITIONS — BARS — SASH — DOORS
KITCHEN CABINETS
SHOP — SU tter 6122 RESIDENCE — RA ndolph 1080
928 Folsom St., San Francisco 449 Mariposa St., Brisbane
ALFRED PISTOHL, Proprietor — A Brisbane Resident

FOR THE HOME

EVERYTHING ELECTRICAL
Radios . . . . . Appliances
McKinney Electric
103 Visitacion Avenue
BRISBANE

BUILDERS SUPPLY SERVICE
301 Visitacion Avenue, Brisbane

TOURIST CAFE
and Auto Camp
IN BRISBANE
Regular Italian Dinner 50c
Special for July 4 celebration
Free Barbecue Sunday and Monday

AVENUE THEATRE
2650 SAN BRUNO AVENUE PHONE DELAWARE 3755
SUNDAY, MONDAY, TUESDAY, August 15-16-17—

Also EDWARD G. ROBINSON in
THUNDER IN THE CITY
Wed. and Thurs., August 18-19—
SILVERWARE NIGHTS
LIONEL BARRYMORE
CECELIA PARKER in A FAMILY AFFAIR
—Also—
John Beal - Joan Fontaine in
MAN WHO FOUND HIMSELF
Fri. and Sat., August 20-21—
BANK NIGHT FRIDAY - 8:30
Hugh Herbert - Tom Brown in THAT MAN'S HERE AGAIN
—Also—
Chester Morris - Leo Corrillo in
I PROMISE TO PAY

WANTED
Houses for Sale
Insurance - Fire and Automobile
Complete Rental Service
Beatrice J. Annis, Notary Public
ARTHUR ANNIS REALTY CO.
At Brisbane Tract Office — Phone RAndolph 10402

DANCE . . . . . DINE
Where Music and Food
Are Mighty Fine

OUT OF TOWN CLUB

One-half Mile Below Brisbane
on the Bayshore Highway
Phone RAndolph 9948
JOE MILLER